Village joins county on 911

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

The Antioch Village Board decided to take no local action on the enhanced 911 proposal prior to the Lake County Board meeting on Thursday, Aug. 31.

Early in the week, a meeting with Joyce Frayer, Lake Villa mayor, and Lindenhurst Police Chief Gary Kupsak lead to the decision to go along with the county on 911 enhancement.

The village board considered an ordinance putting a local referendum on the November ballot concerning 911 enhancement, but decided the risk of the township losing 911 capability altogether if the county referendum failed and the local one passed, was too great.

One reason for having a local referendum would be to have immediate control of the 911 surcharge monies instead of going through a board at the county level with one local representative on it.

There are two 911 lines with 395 prefixes. The one used by the township would go if a county referendum lost and a local one passed.

Lake Villa and Lindenhurst, whose emergency services are dispatched by Antioch, would still be able to use basic 911 through the Antioch dispatchers because of separate 911 lines with 356 prefixes.

By going along with the county, all the areas dispatched by Antioch have to lose if the county referendum does not pass, is the enhancement, the 911 basic service will remain as it has been for over 10 years.

The enhancement would allow dispatchers immediate access to a caller's location even if they are unable to give it.

If the county board votes to put the enhancement proposal calling for a 911 surcharge amounting to approximately 90 cents to $1 per phone per month, on the November ballot, and it passes, it will be well over a year before the enhanced program will be implemented throughout the county," says Lake County Sheriff Clint Grinnell.

ACHS budget jumps almost 11 percent

After being on display for district electors to peruse for a month, Antioch Community High School's $10.3 million 1989-90 budget will have a hearing and possible adoption by the school board, at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 21, the next regular meeting of the board.

According to ACHS's business manager, Ken Wierschem, if approved, the budget will be almost 11 percent higher than that of last year.

The 50 to 60 percent raise in the cost of special education, up from last year's $260,000 to $400,000, and also the hike in the cost of special education transportation, up from $85,000 to $145,000, are items that shows the biggest raise in the new budget.

The 33 percent raise in the cost of health insurance for district employees accounts for another big chunk of that budget raise.

In the 1988-89 school year, ACHS had budgeted $256,000 for health insurance. This year, that same item equals $360,000 of the new budget.

Board ponders traffic cure

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Well-known traffic engineer, Dan Block has given his recommendations to the Antioch Village Board concerning the village traffic study he was commissioned to do.

Block's No. 1 recommendation, now under consideration by the village board, is the extension of Orchard St. east to Corona and Depot Sts., the site of the closed Antioch Lumber building.

According to Mayor Robert Wilton, in considering this recommendation, the board will be looking to floating bonds, etc., for what will probably amount to a $1 million dollar expenditure by the village.

-LEGAL- ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR 1989

Changes in the assessment roll by the Township Assessor of Antioch Township, as certified by the Lake County Supervisor of Assessments, appears in this issue of the Antioch News Reporter. Property owners in Antioch Township should make it a point to check the amount of their assessments.

Any property owner who objects to the amount of their assessment should file a complaint in writing, on the prescribed form, with the Board of Review, 18 North County Street, Room 603, Waukegan, IL 60085-4339. Property owners will have 30 (thirty) days from the date of publication within which to file a complaint regarding their assessment.

Many incumbents skip area school board races

All the petitions have been turned in by those running for area school boards in the November election.

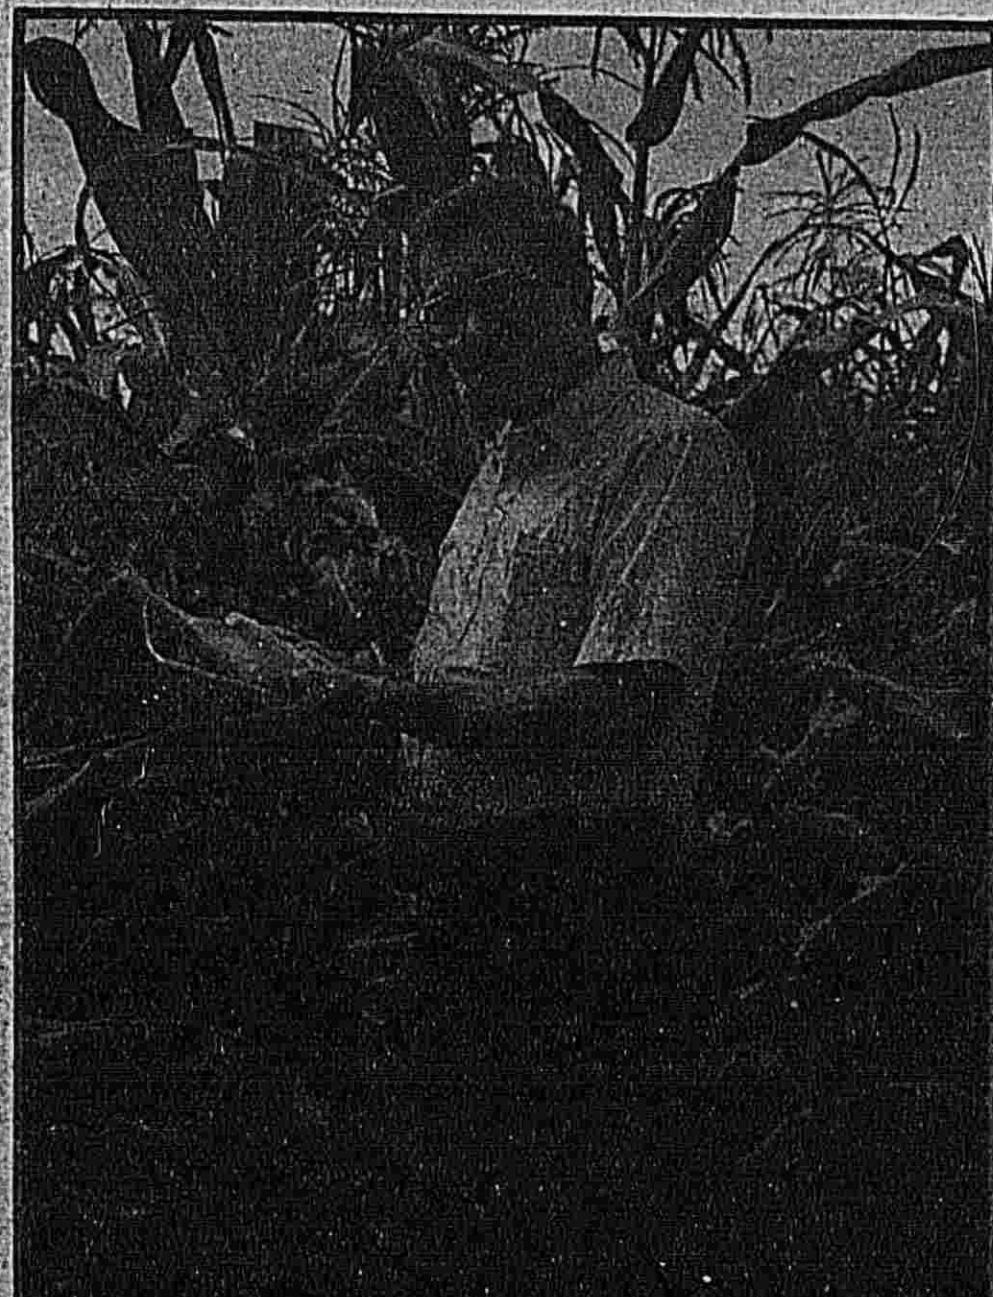

At Antioch High School, with four seats on the ballot, six people are running, two incumbents and four challengers.

Charles Forster and Julie Portalski will not be trying to hold on to the board seats they presently hold.

Incumbents Glen Moore and Tom Fisher will be running for the seats they now hold.

Big ears, big county

Bob Schmerbach, Lake County Extension Advisor on Agriculture, has been observing several growth patterns as of late. Here, he inspects the development of an ear of corn, but another growth pattern he's noticed is the impact of rapid residential and commercial growth in Lake County and its affects on the farming industry. # Wauconda's Fenzke has educated nose

by TOM WITOM
Lakeland Newspapers

George Fenzke is a man with an educated nose.

A long-time (38 years) resident of Wauconda, Fenzke has an unusual hobby: aromatherapy, the stimulation of emotional and physical responses through the use of powerfully scented natural oils.

"Although the use of herbs and their essential oils goes back more than a thousand years to the Egyptians, Greeks and Romans, it's all just coming back into focus once again," said Fenzke.

The French are conducting clinical research on herbal essences, which can be prescribed for internal and external use there and in German and England, but aromatherapy has a long way to travel in this country.

It's still in its infancy here, and much research will have to be conducted before the Food and Drug Administration approves guidelines for internal use of herbal essences.

But Fenzke said he thinks the field of aromatherapy offers a lot of potential. Unconventional though it may be, it's nothing to sniff one's nose at, so to speak.

"After all, our sense of smell is one of the most effective of the senses - it goes directly to the brain," Fenzke added.

Fenzke, who retired two years ago from a career in the metal manufacturing industry, is a firm believer in the natural restorative power of aromatherapy. He keeps a wide variety of essential oils on hand, refrigerated and well sealed to preserve their potency.

Although Fenzke is not a practicing therapist, he admits his brothers and sisters frequently turn to him for advice on which combination of essential oils have worked well for him.

A mildly skeptical reporter who applied a few drops of woody smelling basil oil to his forehead found that it was a soothing, refreshing pick-me-up - as Fenzke said it could be.

Fenzke keeps informed of developments in the field as a member of the American Aromatherapy Assn., which is based in San Rafael, Calif. and was organized to establish guidelines on the purity and quality of essential oils. For example, it found early on that certain Australian oils, while natural, were diluted.

He attended the association's convention last spring on the West Coast, and his home library includes literature on the Pacific Institute of Aromatherapy's correspondence course and how-to books such as "Practical Aromatherapy" by Shirley Price (Thorsons Publishers Ltd., Wellingborough, Northamptonshire).

The Price book has a variety of recipes for creating bath or massage oils for everything from high blood pressure to the common cold. Mix 12 drops of eucalyptus, 6 peppermint and 6 cedarwood for a useful bug repellent, or a combination of camomile, juniper, marjoram and melissa to relieve insomnia and stress. The author also recommends fennel, juniper, rosemary and sage for a dual purpose treatment of cellulite and hangovers!

"There are all kinds of formulas out there," said Fenzke. "If one doesn't work, try another."

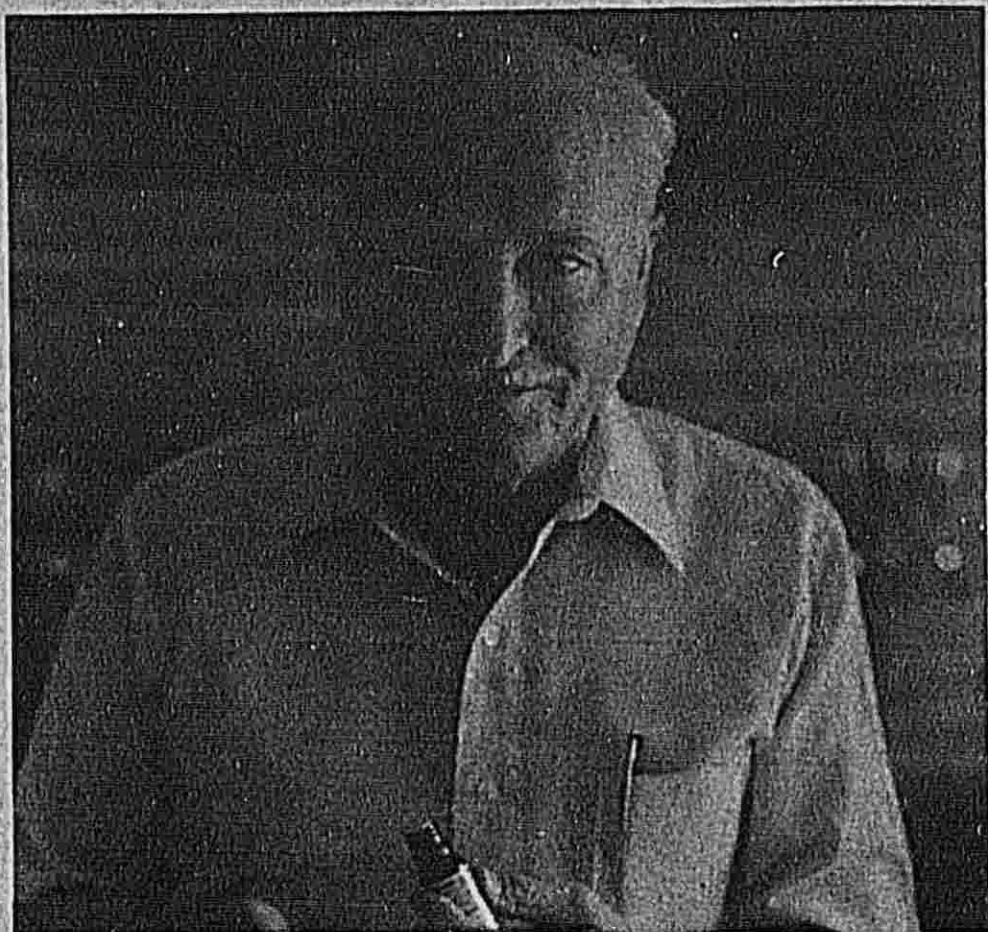

Budding practitioners of the art, however, will want to use a light hand, since many of the base ingredients are costly. "Good rose oil from Bulgaria might set you back $25 to $30 a milliliter," said Fenzke, pointing out that it might require two tons of roses to yield a pound of pure oil.

In general, Fenzke prefers to experiment with essential herbal oils. He said Bach Therapy, a spinoff from mainstream aromatherapy, relies strictly on essential oils from flowers and uses them for psychological purposes.

Fenzke has other eclectic interests: medieval chemistry, mysticism and metaphysics. "It really all ties together," he said with a twinkle in his eye. Noting, for example, how the ancient Greek philosophers spoke of atomic energy and that it took hundreds of years for their theories to gel.

Trend sees no room for County farmers

by MIKE PRAMSHAFER
Lakeland Newspapers

The future of farmland in Lake County is a big question mark. The rapid rise of residential and commercial development in the 1980's has established a trend which leaves little room for the farming community in the future, according to Bob Schmerbach of the Lake County Cooperative Extension Service, University of Illinois Home Economics & Agriculture.

Schmerbach, who has been with the extension service since 1958, said the county lost 15 percent of its farmland between 1982-87 (which was when the last census was taken) and he believes there will be "little conventional farming left for the future if the trend continues."

Lake County, which currently has 82,000 acres of farmland, is being taken over by new subdivisions and commercial growth, according to Schmerbach.

"The same thing happened to Cook and DuPage Counties a while back. The price for land is getting so high that it's almost impossible for someone to start a farm or for someone to resist selling his farmland," he asserted. "The temptation is there to sell for the big buck."

Schmerbach, who serves as the extension advisor of agriculture, also feels the rapid growth of the county has demanded a shift in the type of farming from livestock and dairy to grain farming, such as wheat, hay, corn soybeans and oats.

"The days of livestock and dairy farming are basically gone because people don't want to move into their new home next to a smelly herd of cattle inside a fence. It just doesn't mix," he said.

One industry which has benefited from this outburst in residential and commercial growth is horticulture, especially the nursery business.

"The nursery business is quickly becoming a multi-million dollar industry. We now have 59 licensed nurseries in Lake County and over three million square feet of greenhouses," Schmerbach added.

He continued, "Nurseries have everything the homeowner wants - trees, shrubbery and flowers. The market is growing around the nurseries and will continue to do so if this growth continues."

However, despite this recent trend in diminishing Lake County farmland, Schmerbach did say that the quality of the grain products hasn't really suffered, especially corn.

"We can still grow a nice crop of corn here in the county. Our other crops are doing just as well too. The weather has been cooperative this year," he said.

Planners will examine Trophy Club development

The Gurnee Plan Commission is expected to have a full agenda when it meets Sept. 6.

Items include another hearing on the proposed Trophy Club development by Zale Group, Country Meadows and requests from Gurnee Golf Center and a resident.

According to Gurnee Asst. Admin. Jon Wildenberg, the plans for the Trophy Club now call for 508 units on a 193 acres located along the south side of Rte. 132 and the west side of Hun/Club Rd.

Earlier, Zale had withdrawn plans for a commercial area.

Zale and Lexington Homes are working together on a common 20 acre park donation site, Wildenberg said.

Lexington Homes project won a favorable recommendation at the last Gurnee Plan Commission meeting. It will be built on 446 acres south of Rte. 132. Wildenberg said there are 29 units under the village's minimum lot size of 10,000 square feet.

The single-family homes project will go before the village board when the final planned unit development agreement is worked out.

Country Meadows Development Corp. is planning a 15-acre development off Gages Lake Rd. near Hickory Heaven.

The subdivision would have to be annexed and would be 24 lots of single-family homes.

Also on next week's agenda is the Gurnee Golf Center request. Owners of the center, to be built off Greenleaf St., are seeking alterations to the site plan. These include adding a building near the driving range site of 1,000 square feet and installing canopies over 10 or 12 of the driving range stations.

A final request plan commission members will consider is a proposal to have a day care facility at 475 N. O'Plane Rd. Peggy Heinhold has filed that request.

Residents of Oak Knoll and Orchard Valley subdivisions attended a meeting of the public service committee of the Lake County Board last week.

Office closed on Labor Day

Lakeland Newspapers' office will be closed Monday, Sept. 4 in observance of Labor Day. Normal office hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) will resume on Tuesday, Sept. 5.

Regular advertising and news deadlines for the Sept. 8 issue will not be affected.

Firemen battle garage fires

Grayslake Fire Dept. personnel are investigating a garage fire and a semitractor trailer fire.

The semitractor trailer fire Aug. 28 caused $30,000 in damage. It was located south of Shorewood Rd. near the Soo Line railroad tracks.

Firemen were called to the scene at 2:09 a.m. and spent two hours putting out the blaze.

The garage fire at 243 Belvidere Rd. caused $500 in damage. The garage was owned by Robert Tayco.

The Aug. 29 fire was reported at 2:58 p.m. and took firemen were on the scene for two hours.

Endless duties keep Churchill moving

Editor's note: Lake-land Newspapers arranged to spend a day with Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa). The following is the third installment of a four-part series reporting a typical day during summer session with Churchill.

4:17—Churchill returns. Debate continues on issues of child care, public aid, education, flooding (especially for Cook County), Chicago Sanitary District, plus those issues already mentioned.

4:19—Legislators start coming to Churchill to find out what is happening in the Senate debate now going on regarding taxes.

the House. Churchill walks over to listen.

4:40—Debate starts in the House on controlling the rate of the speed of water going into Cook County. The bill adversely affects Lake County and Churchill opposes it.

4:41—Churchill says the House will stay in session at minimum until one hour.

5:11—Democrats request the same. Granted to both with the House to return to session at 6:15. These meetings are private for elected legislators only. They are held in rooms elsewhere in the State Capitol.

5:48—Churchill's wife, Sandy, and their two children arrive after driving for several hours from Lake Villa in a downpour. They go to his office and wait for the caucus to end.

6:17—Many bills are considered in the next 25 minutes, which keeps Churchill busy discussing the issues with inquiring colleagues.

6:20—Mrs. Churchill and the children come to the House floor.

6:42—The "family responsibility" or "family leave" bill that affects companies with 35 or more employees comes to the floor. An employee must have worked 20 hours a week for 12 months to qualify.

6:44—Republican leadership discusses this bill and strategy plans to defeat it. There is considerable screaming and shouting by speakers, pro and con, on this bill.

6:46—Churchill is consulted by members from both sides of the House on this one. He terms the bill "fuzzy" and notes that this is a mandated bill for one benefit. He says it does not leave it up to the employer to offer a wide selection of benefits that employees can select to best fit their needs.

Some opponents, including Churchill, say the bill is not only anti-business but is anti-labor, as well. The emotional argument continues, with the bill finally defeated.

7:00—Wives and their children start arriving for a Springfield visit with their husbands and fathers. Many will be disappointed because House members, led by Churchill and other leaders, have long hours of sessions and meetings ahead of them for this weekend.

7:05—It is noted by Churchill that during the caucus many of the pages changed into more casual clothes. Most of the male legislators, however, continue to have on their suit jackets, and the female members continue to be dressed up (only one member seen to be wearing slacks).

7:12—The pace quickens, even though several legislators privately comment they are hungry.

7:30—Box suppers arrive for the Democrats, while the Republicans go in small groups to the office of Lee Daniels to pick up their meals.

7:32—The House continues in session. Churchill's family leaves the House floor as he circulates among Republicans as part of his duties.

7:47—A fiery speech by a legislator who challenges the record on how he had just voted. His vote is changed on the House voting board without comment on how this mistake occurred. Churchill comments that legislators are proud of their work and therefore want their votes recorded accurately.

7:51—The first verification roll call of the day requested by the Democrats on how Republicans voted. Several similar roll call verifications will occur as the night speeds by.

8:10—Churchill eats supper at his office desk as his wife balances the food on her lap while sitting in a chair; other representatives eat while sitting on a couch in his office. Conversation tends to be around bills still to be considered this evening. Meanwhile, through a House speaker system, Churchill continues to listen to the ongoing debates.

8:19—A legislative conference in his office as Churchill continues with his meal.

8:31—Supper finished, Churchill returns to the House floor.

8:34—He works the aisle for about 15 minutes.

9:00—Churchill notes that the legislators, now in session for 11 1/2 hours, are becoming punchy. Increasing numbers of Democrats are coming over to learn what is going on.

9:02—Word comes back that the Senate again refused to pass the tax bill.

Desk work

Rep. Churchill discusses a tax bill while taking notes on conversation and reading the front page summary of another bill presented by his secretary, Michelle Buhl.

3:46—The daily popcorn appears for the first time on the floor of the House, and more of it is seen as the afternoon goes on.

4:00—It is very evident that House members, their limbs stiff, are talking and walking around more. Churchill continues, however, to work the aisle but now has to look longer to find his people.

4:05—Two members of the House comment to him that the temperature is much too high.

4:07—A legislator tells a group he will catch a 7 p.m. flight to get home. Churchill later explains that the legislator had just learned that an operation on his son did not work, with possibly fatal implications.

4:08—Churchill leaves for a meeting in his office.

4:30—Excitement soars in the House as word comes that the Senate is about to cast its first vote on a tax hike. Churchill, whose desk is on the aisle that separates Democrats and Republicans, comments that because the Democrats have more members, they can really pass any bill they want. Noise level declines as legislators anxiously wait for the Senate vote. House debate continues on other bills.

4:32—Churchill and Daniels discuss strategy on an upcoming bill.

4:36—Many House members go to the Senate to listen to the tax increase debate.

4:39—A monitor on the Democratic side is turned on that broadcasts the Senate debate in a remote part of after the Senate tax debate ends. The bill could come back to the House, he states.

4:48—House member rush back from the Senate to inform the House that the tax bill will fail.

4:50—Churchill goes to the Senate to hear Senate President Rock speak on the tax issue.

5:02—Back in the House, Churchill leads a fight not give an administrative assistant to every House member, which he calls an important

5:03—Word comes that the tax bill failed in the Senate.

5:09—Many legislators come over to Churchill to discuss the bills that still will be coming up this day.

5:10—The Republicans request a caucus for at least

Need for new weapons cited by Nagel, Busch

By Oct. 1, Fox Lake police officers will be equipped with standardized weapons designed to give them additional protection and added fire power.

Police Chief Ron Nagel said there are "misconceptions" about the purchase to 18 handguns for individual use and two Uzis for the department arsenal which is under the personal supervision of Nagel and Lt. James Busch operations commander.

"We're not talking about military-style weapons or machine guns designed to knock down brick walls," Chief Nagel commented.

Nagel said the new weapons technically are machine pistols and both fire identical 9 mm bullets as opposed to rifle cartridges used machine guns.

Side arms being provided officers in a departure from the long-standing custom of police officers furnishing their own weapons at their own expense are Smith & Wesson 9 mm machine pistols.

Lt. Busch said standardization is the byword in modern law enforcement. "Uniforms, procedures, equipment; everything has to be standardized. It follows that every officer has the same weapon," Busch explained.

Chief Nagel stressed that the Uzis were authorized by the village board for emergency use only. The rapid-fire weapons will be under lock and key at all times.

Lt. Busch oversees activities of Fox Lake's police tactical team, a unit with special weapons and tactics training prepared to deal with such incidents as hostages, sniper or heavily armed drug dealers.

Both Mayor Frank Meier, a former Fox Lake police officer and state trooper, and Trustee Kenneth Hamsher, police committee chairman, strongly endorsed purchase of the standardized personal weapons and the two Uzis.

They said the weapons provide needed additional fire power to cope with modern crime.

Funeral home president dies

Russell W. Marsh, president of Marsh Funeral Home in Gurnee, died Aug. 25 at Victory Lakes Nursing Home in Lindenhurst.

According to Terry Marsh, funeral home director, the Marsh family started its business when his father, Floyd Marsh Sr. moved to Waukegan in 1938 and the business opened three years later. In 1986 the business expanded to its second one-story site at Washington St. and Cemetery Rd. in Gurnee.

Russell Marsh was an active community member, serving as member of the Swedish Glee Club, Elks Club and past president of the Waukegan Kiwanis Club.

He has six grandchildren, the eldest Jill, 12, a student at Woodland Dist. 50.

Marsh was preceded in death by his father Floyd E. Marsh in 1969 and brother Gerald in 1975.

Visitation was held at the funeral home Sunday.

Talking politics

Hundreds of lobbyists mill around rotunda railing on third floor of State Capitol. Rep. Robert Churchill (at railing, right). He is rarely able to take the 29 steps from his office to the House without stopping to talk with them as he learns their viewpoints on various issues. Here, he chats with three members of the Illinois Bankers Assn. They are, from left to right: Robert C. Schrimple, legislative consultant; Pam McDonough, director of state government affairs; and Michael D. Rosenfeld, vice president, state government affairs.

Awards

The Antioch Public Library Dist. presented awards to the children who enrolled and completed their individual goals for the Summer Reading Club and went beyond it. The school age winners were: first place-Heather Roberts; second place-Jennifer Groth; and third place-Shawn Hansen. Preschool Read-to-Me winners were: first place-Ryan Roberts; second place-Ruth McAlonan; and third place-Amanda Bartz.

Developer donates

Millburn School Supt. James Blockinger told the Dist. 24 Board of Education Monday that sales are progressing nicely in Lindenhurst subdivisions where developers have promised donations to Millburn and Antioch school districts. In Lakewood subdivision, 111 of the 211 homesites have been sold. After construction is completed, the developer has agreed to donate $500 per home. One-third of the money will go to Antioch Community High School and the remaining two-thirds will go to Millburn School.

ACHS cheerers take first

ACHS Cheerleaders take 1st at camp

This year's Antioch High School football and basketball cheerleading squads were combined during the summer for the first time. The combined squads spent many hours practicing fundamentals before attending camp. In order to work around everyone's busy schedules, practices were held from 6 - 8 a.m. during the month of July.

They attended the Dynamic Cheerleading Assn.'s summer camp held at Rockford College in August. The four day camp provided instruction in fundamental skills, stunts, and new ideas.

The varsity cheerleaders who participated in the camp were Captain Julie Skrypnik, Captain Thayna Ernstmeyer, Debbie Apostolov, Kelly Burbridge, Kendra Casey, Cindy Dewar, Christine Gunther, Deb McNeary, Heather Morrissey, Kim Pankauskas, Tina Verly and Kim Weber.

Cheerleaders attending DCA summer camp live in the dorms and eat in the college cafeteria. This gives them many opportunities to meet other cheerleaders and for squads to share ideas. The schedule is busy, with work sessions scheduled in the mornings, afternoon and evening.

The last day parents are invited to attend the final evaluation and competition which is followed by awards ceremony. The Antioch varsity cheerleaders received the overall first place award. They also received an award for the most spirited squad.

The sophomore football and basketball squads were also combined for the summer. They attended the DCA summer camp with the varsity squad.

the camp were Captain Andrea Dydo, Captain Amy Jester, Pamela Beckey, Kim Burrell, Crystal Cox, Dawn Gardine, April Haley, Heather Jozefiak, Erin Stevens, Becky Ward and Tami Weber.

The squad finished in second place in the sophomore category. They also received an award for the most improved squad attending camp. Everyone is encouraged to attend this year's football and basketball games and help cheer the teams onto victory.

Cunningham gets OK, Little property on hold

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Because of the ongoing growth of the Village of Antioch, no village board meeting is without its annexation and zoning problems.

At the board's last meeting, Village Atty. Ken Clark told representatives for the Little-Dean property on Rte. 173 that a clause in the pre-annexation agreement that had been brought before the board would have to be changed.

"I've never seen this kind of verbiage in any other pre-annexation agreement," said Clark, referring to a clause asking for sewer, etc. fees to be frozen for three years.

"This puts a duty on the village to apply an ordinance on frozen fees to everybody," said Clark.

The developers agreed to scratch the clause.

After the planning commission had turned thumbs down on Al Little's plans to build 400 homes in Windmill Creek, located north of Depot St., south of North Ave and bounded by Deep Lake Rd. and Longview Dr., because the legal description of the property is wrong (part of Phase 1 is shown in Phase 2), and a lack of park donation, the village board delayed its decision on the matter.

The village board had earlier turned down a rezoning request for the Cunningham property on Anita St., where plans are to build duplexes.

After the plans were amended, showing single family homes to be built on lots 1-13, leaving the duplexes to be built on land already zoned R4, and dropping the B3 zoning, the village board approved the revised plan.

Dist. 34 teachers get pay hike, budget up 14.8 %

Antioch Grade School Dist. 34's proposed budget, amounting to $6,513,158, showing a 14.8 percent raise over last year, is on display at the school.

According to Dist. 34 Supt. Don Skidmore, raises in teachers' salaries, the addition of four teachers and one teacher's aid to the staff, the cost of the asbestos abatement program and work on the district's fuel tanks, account for the largest part of the budget raise.

The asbestos abatement program, plus the continuing maintenance on existing asbestos in the school district's buildings and the cost of filing continuing management papers with the State of Ill. totals $61,005.

The work on fuel tank removal and replacement is set to cost in the area of $59,500.

At the last regular board meeting, Skidmore accepted a three year contract offered by the board, giving him a 7 percent salary increase to $77,250 a year.

Women fete ACHS

The Antioch Junior Women's Club is selling pewter Christmas Tree ornaments celebrating the 75th Anniversary of Antioch Community High School. The club has honored other community organizations with past ornament sales.

Antioch Vikings training hard for season

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(312)395-5380
Antioch Vikings

It is that time of year again. The Antioch Viking Football teams have started their practice sessions. One watching these fifth through eighth grade boys being put through their paces may think they are actually at the training camp for the Chicago Bears. The training routines are quite extensive and it is amazing to see your beloved offspring, who normally shys away from even the easiest chore, actually enjoying the never ending tortures the coaches put them through. As I watch the coaches get just what they want out of each and every individual on their team, I find myself thinking perhaps teachers should take courses in various coaching techniques. Maybe this would enable them to actually make the students not only want to learn but in fact to actually beg for more knowledge. Viking football registration is usually held the last part of July or first part of August. If your son is in the fifth, sixth, seventh or eighth grade next year, I suggest you consider this very disciplined activity for him. In a way the training sessions can be compared to a boot camp. I guarantee you, there are no lazy boys on a football field - only tired ones! I personally think my son's coach, Chuck Grasser, should become a junior high teacher. I just bet the students would know their reading, writing, and arithmetic when he was through with them! Am I right Chuck? Keep up the good work.

GLS Board

Grass Lake School was a busy place at 8 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 21, as four area residents waited in line to file their School Board candidate petitions for the November election. Since Julie Groh, Cheryl Henning, Sally Hiller, and Liz Schmehl all arrived at 8 a.m., there will be a lottery drawing on Sept. 6 to determine the ballot positions for their names. Area residents interested in running for one of the four vacant seats on the GLS Board of Education turned in their petitions during the week of Aug. 21 through Aug. 28 in order to have their name appear on the ballot for the Nov. 7 election.

Long-time friends

This is a tale about about long-time friendships. When Rose Simpson was a freshmen at Taft High School in Chicago she became friends with a group of girls and they formed a club. Now, almost 40 years later, this club and friendships continue. The gals along with their huddles take turns meeting at each other's homes on a monthly basis. This month

Hometown Goodies

it was Rose's turn to entertain the group. Rose would like to thank Ed Caulfield for inviting her guests aboard his spacious pontoon boat to take them on a tour of beautiful Lake Marie. Rose tells me Ed looked and played the part of a professional tour guide as he pointed out the sights to about 14 of Rose's long-time friends. They all truly had an enjoyable time and Rose would like to personally thank Ed for this special highlight of the day.

Welcome Back

Sally Hiller and Ardeen Harris of Antioch would like to say welcome back to their daughters, Carrie and Kathy. Recently Carrie and Kathy had an opportunity to visit Medjugorje in Yugoslavia.

Zeien-Buxton

Joseph and Patricia Zeien of Antioch. Both Kathy and Chris are past graduates of ACHS. Chris is presently a member of the Antioch Police Dept. The maid of honor will be Kathy's sister Kelly Zeien and the bridesmaids will be her other sister Kristen Zeien, Karen Paddock and Denise Borst. The best man will be Chris' good friend Dave Gedville and the groomsmen are Ralph Buxton, Scott Buxton and Glenn Dyer. A reception of about 170 guests will be held at the Landmark - formerly the Country House in Antioch. Hope for a beautiful day for this special occasion and in turn a beautiful life together.

Get Well Wishes

Howard Stann, are you following doctor's orders after your recent surgery? A little birdie told me the doctor advises six weeks of rest with no cheating. Hope you are feeling better and following the doctors orders. These get well wishes from Lizard and readers certainly won't hurt. It is not strenuous work just sitting around reading the Lizard's column. Feel better soon!

Happy Anniversary

Jim Harris, I understand you need an adding machine or calculator to figure out how many years you've been married. Has your marriage to Ardeen been so difficult that it actually seems longer than it is? By the way you figure things, you'll be celebrating 50 years together before either of you even turn 50. Hope you had a real happy 19th anniversary on Aug. 29. Next year you can get her a special, expensive gift for 20 years together. But then who's counting?

Florida Vacation

The last week in July, Jenny Harris was the guest of the Mike Christopolous family in Bonita Springs, Fla. I understand she had a great time despite a slight case of sun poisoning. She was also witness to a dog being bitten on the nose by a baby rattlesnake right in the frontyard of the Christopolous's home. The vet was called and he told everyone that the bite would cause no major damage, just a swollen nose and discomfort. After the incident Jenny made sure she wore her shoes at all times and always looked before she leaped.

When Jenny returned to Antioch, she immediately resumed her favorite pastime of golfing. On Aug. 7, Jenny took first place at the Spring Valley Country Club golf meet. On Aug. 13 and 14, Renwood Country Club hosted a two day, 36 hole tournament and Jenny came in second place. You've been a busy gal, Jenny, and when your golfing brings you fame and fortune, remember all your old friends (and I mean old) in your Hometown!

Two Homes

As I've mentioned before, we have a second home in Eagle River, Wis. Nope, this is not another plug for Eagle River. This is about the insanity of owning two homes. How many of you out there own more than one home? If you do, do me a favor, call me and tell me why! As I vacation in Eagle River and enjoy the many pleasures the area has to offer, my mind runs wild with plans and ideas of selling our Antioch home and making a go of it up there on a permanent year round basis. Then when I return to Antioch, where I raised my family and made many good friends, my mind contemplates improvements I'd like to make around here. I then dream and plan of selling the Eagle River home in order to have money to sink into the house at this end. Basically, my loyalties are now divided. Which house gets what first? I realize more and more that two homes means double work - two lawns to manicure, repair and upkeep at both ends, double bills, double equipment needs, double insurance, and double the worry. Granted, in some ways it means double the fun - if one isn't too tired to enjoy it. Is it worth it? You tell me.

Hello

Hello there Kitty Weigel. Your new house is beautiful and the umbrella we purchased at your garage sale looks dandy on our picnic table. Hope your sale was a success. Maybe we will see each other at the Viking football games. Till then, call me with your tidbits. Remember I need an assistant to help me deliver well-rounded coverage. I am "old"! I can't do it alone. When you all call, remember to "Ask for the Lizard!"

Counselors

Millikin University student, Todd Gedville, Antioch, has been named a rush counselor to serve during the interfraternity rush this fall at the university. Gedville, a junior physical education major, is a member of the football team and the Millikin Alumni Student Host organization. He is the son of Ted and Marie Gedville and a 1987 graduate of Antioch High School.

4th family member to attend Stockton

Rachel Jennings, a 1989 graduate of Antioch High School, has been accepted as a new student at Culver-Stockton College for the fall semester.

Jennings, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jennings of Antioch, plans to major in biology and has received a Founders' Scholarship which rewards academic excellence by paying half the tuition to attend Culver-Stockton. She also received a merit and a music scholarship.

In high school, she was active in student council, the National Honor Society, cheerleading, track, drama and choir.

Jennings is the fourth member of her family to attend Culver-Stockton College. Her mother, JoAnn, graduated in 1966 and her brother, Ted, graduated in 1989. Jennings' sister-in-law, Sarah, is currently attending as a junior.

Culver-Stockton College is a four-year, liberal arts college affiliated with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and is located in Canton, Mo.

Completes

Pvt. Karen T. Lamusga, Antioch, has completed basic training at Fort Dix, N. J. Lamusga, is the daughter of Glenda and Nick Weber, Lindenhurst and her husband, James, is the son of Melvin and Lorraine Lamusga, Antioch. The soldier is a 1987 graduate of Antioch High School.

Parks starts fall season

The Antioch Parks and Recreation department is starting its fall activities.

Camp Crayon, the department's day school program for children 3-5 years old, will start its Monday-Wednesday session on Sept. 18, from 9 a.m. to noon.

The Tuesday-Thursday group will start on Sept. 21, from 9 a.m. to noon. There will be five, six-week sessions held at the Scout house on Main St. throughout the year.

Beginning at 6 p.m., on Tuesday, Sept. 19, baton lessons will be available every Tuesday at W. C. Petty School.

There will be an eight-week boys basketball program held at W. C. Petty School on Monday nights, from 6 to 7 p.m. Boys from nine to 12 years of age can register for the program by calling Parks, (312)395-2160. The cost of the eight-week session is $25.

Parks will hold aerobics classes, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., Monday, Tuesday and/or Thursday, for those interested, ages 14 and up.

The first six-week session will start on Sept. 12. A two class per week session will cost $25 while a three-class session is priced at $30.

Donations

Sales are progressing in new Lindenhurst subdivisions like Lakewood where developers have promised the Millburn and Antioch school districts donations.

Engagement

Perry-Ball

Mr. and Mrs. Don Perry of Rochester, Minn. announce the engagement of their daughter Natalie Kay, to Don Michael Ball, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ball of Antioch. The ceremony will take place at the Rochester Covenant Church in Rochester on Oct. 14.

The bride and groom-to-be are both graduates of Bethel College of St. Paul, Minn.

The couple plans to reside in Minneapolis.

Sprinkling ban off as board mulls land use

In a continuation of the last regular meeting of the Antioch Village Board, the board lifted the sprinkling ban that had been on in the village all summer.

The board also voted to allow the public works department to purchase one pair of boots each year for that department's employees, at a cost not to exceed $90.

The employee will pick up any override of that cost.

Marvin Oldenberger, head of the plan commission, along with commission members Lyle Wilson and Todd Maplethorp, presented the land use plan the commission has been working on to the board.

The board took the plan under advisement and will probably take action on it at the next board meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 5.

The Labor Day holiday caused the change of the meeting date.

In other business, the board instructed the public works department to go to work on the seven acres near Anita and Greenbriar Sts., owned by the village.

The plan is to make another public park out of the acreage, hopefully to be ready for use by next summer.

School Board

race include Ted Axton, Alice Gantar, Clifford Ewert and Dean Parkman.

Eight people will be vying for the four open seats on the Antioch Grade School Dist. 34 Board of Education.

Incumbents Bruce Jablonski, Edward Haley and Roy Pomrening will be trying to keep their board positions, while the other incumbent, Phyllis Zora, is not running for reelection.

New names on the ballot will be Donna J. Waisman, Gary Cybul, Gary O. Burnette, Edwin R. Juergens and Karen Luck.

Scholar attends college

Pamela Oldenburger, daughter of Marvin and Sharon Oldenburger of Antioch, begins her first quarter as a Presidential Scholar at Augustana College, Rock Island.

She is one of 47 freshmen chosen to participate in the highly selective Foundations honors program, receiving scholarships ranging from $3,000 to $8,750.

She was selected on the basis of her academic record and potential to excel

Incumbents Paul Killo, Pat Santiammo and Linda Boerman will be sitting the Grass Lake Board of Education election out while Julianne Groh will be trying to regain her seat.

Also running for the Grass Lake Board are Cheryl L. Henning, Sally Hillar, Elizabeth Schmehl and Shirley Buchanan.

With four open seats on the Emmons Grade School Board of Education, three incumbents, Alice Gantar, Phil Dahl and Clare DeMartini are not running for reelection.

Incumbent Dick Ruck will be on the ballot. Also running are Jan Quist, Lou Korom, Kathy Cybul and Jody Colatrino.

Schlafer scores sprint win

Al Schlafer of Sussex scored his second 25-lap sprint car feature win of the season on Saturday, Aug. 26, at Toft Auto Racing's Wilmot Speedway in Wilmot, Wisc. Tim Cox of Park City captured his seventh 20-lap modified main event, while Jay Maywald of McHenry scored his sixth 20-lap late model triumph of the year. Jim Wicks of Wadsworth, won his second 15-lap spectator stock main.

Schlafer led from wire to wire in the sprint main event. At the finish, runner-up Allen Winker of Kenosha closed to within striking distance, but Schlafer was up to the challenge. "I could hear someone's motor, but I didn't know who it was," admitted Schlafer, who scored the win in his Schlafer Auto Body & Sales/Hot Rod Shop sprinter.

In the modified main Bill Dean led the first lap, with Gary Dye in front on the second circuit. Winker went in front on the sixth lap, but on the re-start pulled out with motor problems, giving way to Dye again. Four laps later, Dye pulled out with engine problems and Cox inherited the lead in the Mid-Town Garage/Bud's Shell & Deli modified. Cox went onto the win with Joe Graumenz having to settle for second after a strong bid in the closing laps. Dick Colburn, Mike Frost and Lenny Ostrowski completed the top five. "We had the new motor in, and the car ran perfectly," said Cox, who is bidding for his first, ever, track championship.

Russ Egan led the first circuit of the late model main, but on the second lap several cars tangled in turn three, with Egan's car sustaining considerable sheet metal damage. Ed Devall led on the restart, but two laps later it was point leader Maywald putting his Woodstock Auto Body/Schroeder Enterprises/After the Fox Firebird in front. Maywald went on to the win, with Chuck Ostergaard, Mickey Wilson, Dean Winchester and George Coen completing the top five.

In the spectator stock main, Wicks put his Duck Inn/Fatty's Lounge/Frisby Auto Electric Camaro in front at the drop of the green and was never headed. John Pochler challenged Wicks several times on the high side, but Wicks stuck to his low groove and held on for the win. "Cudaman (Pochler) is always tough, and he kept the pressure on me from the high side," said Wicks. "I think it was the new Yokohama tires I ran for the first time that did the trick. They're a Japanese-developed tire, but American made." J. Pochler, Bobby Giers, Larry Marshall and Mike Pochler completed the top five.

In the second sprint heat, John Tierney flipped in turn one on the start. Tierney was not injured, and after repairs returned to compete in the last chance qualifier.

Wilmot Speedway will host a double-header of action on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 2 and 3. Sept. 2 will be the Lake Shore Harley-Davidson/Yamaha Night featuring sprints, modifieds, late models and spectator stocks, with the first race at 6:45. On Sunday, Sept. 3, will be the J&L Oil Labor Day Shootout featuring sprints, plus the added $1,000 to win, 10-car, 15-lap spring car showdown. Also on the card will be the fourth round of the Wisconsin Super-Modified Challenge Series. Sunday's time trials will begin at 6:30, with the first race at 7:30. Rainedate is Monday, Sept. 4.

In the second annual Monogram Model contest, sponsored in part by Al Clift Mac Tools, winners were Rory Murray of Fox Lake, 11, in the junior Wilmot replica class; Jim Langer of Kenosha in the junior competition class; Chris Jones of Cary, 11 in the senior Wilmot class; and Ronald Shepherd of Kenosha in the senior competition class.

HYDRANTS TO BE FLUSHED

The Village of Antioch Water Dept. will be flushing hydrants starting Sept. 6, 1989 during the hours of 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. Flushing will occur Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. Flushing is for flow test information.

Private Industry Council combats illiteracy

by VIRGINIA KRUEGER
Lakeland Newspapers

The entire State of Illinois faces an era of worker scarcity. This problem is further added to by a widening mismatch of workers' skill and employers' need. Employers may have to delay expansion, compromise standards and increase costs due to the lack of qualified applicants available. Many are not aware of statistics showing Lake County as having over 67,000 adults with less than a high school education. This is 21.6 percent of Lake County's adults. More than 21 percent of Illinois adults are unable to read or write.

The Private Industry Council of Northern Illinois has scheduled a gala 24-hour celebration for Saturday, Sept. 30, entitled "Catch the Fever." A huge auction will take place at the Deerfield Hyatt which will include three planes, two Cadillac cars, two Rolls Royces, 10 paintings, a trip to Hong Kong, an Arabian horse, antiques, jewelry, dinners, cosmetics, etc. These are just some of the items that will be available on the auction block, according to Rita Cooper, originator of "Catch the Fever."

Proceeds from this event are to be earmarked by the Council Foundation, to purchase state-of-the-art audio/visual equipment. This equipment will be installed in appropriate locations, to be available to all residents in need of remediation. Each laboratory will enable 16 adults to learn to read at one time. If labs can be open 24 hours a day, this will enable 12 sets of 16 people at two hours per session to learn to read.

If the council can purchase 18 machines this will, indeed, "perform mutiny on illiteracy."

Former Mayor Dam back in public office

by BILL SCHROEDER
Lakeland Newspapers

Dr. William Dam is back in public office again, accepting appointment to the Fox Lake Grade School board to fill out a two-year vacancy.

Also appointed to fill a vacancy until the November election was Geraldine L. Majkowski, director of Lakeland Apartments. She is a former grade school principal.

Four seats will be open, including those of Robert Sales, current board president, and Linda Usrey, both of whom have filed for reelection.

Other prospective candidates include Mark Kirste, John Rowe, Nancy Girard-Streichmann, Nancy Koske and Michael Lescher.

Deadline for filing nominating petitions was Monday, Aug. 28; the appointments were made Aug. 21.

Dr. Dam is the second member of his family to serve on a board of education. His wife, Meridith, serves on the Grant High board.

There will be four seats open in the balloting this fall.

Lakeland Newspapers Lake County At A Glance

Help little people

GURNEE—Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County would like to invite single parents to learn more about the warmth of a one-to-one friendship the program offers at a Parent Orientation meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 12, 1989 at the BB/BS office, 3838 Grandview Ave., Gurnee, from 7 - 8:30 p.m. If you feel your child/children (ages 4-14) could benefit from weekly additional adult attention through the friendship of a Big Brother/Big Sister, call (312)360-0770 to make your orientation reservation.

Traffic change

ANTIOCH—The Antioch Village Board is eyeing a traffic study that would have the village connect Orchard St. to Depot St. in the area of the old Antioch Lumber Co. The study also recommends a stop and go light at the intersection of Main and Orchards Sts. The cost of the first phase of the traffic change is estimated at $1 million, the money to be raised by a bond float.

Weighted grades

MILLBURN—Millburn School Dist. 24 voted Monday to adopt a weighted grading system for its Gifted and Talented classes from fourth through eighth grade. According to the school's principal, Gary Cybul, weighted grading is especially important in high school where students are competing for college acceptance. He said he feared parents would bring their concerns regarding children's grade point averages down to the grade-school level, although Millburn School does not work on a GPA system. Now, grades given in Millburn's Gifted and Talented classes will be hiked 7 to 8 percent.

No revenue sharing

LINDENHURST—Lindenhurst Village Board members agreed Monday to turn down a request from Grayslake Community High School Supt. Theodore

Van Dom for a share of state income tax revenues resulting from the recently approved state income tax bill. Van Dom said he was informed in a letter from the Illinois State Board of Education that school districts should be aware that the statutes under which local governments receive this revenue explicitly proved that the revenues can be shared with local school districts. With the exception of Trustee Wilma Wetzel, Lindenhurst board members agreed that, although they don't know how much money will be coming in, they'd like to see it spent in their own community.

Request access

LAKEVILLA—Residents living in the neighborhood of the industrial site proposed for the Dist. 41 school bus garage appeared before the Lake Villa Village Board requesting efforts be renewed for the building of access road from the industrial park to Rte. 83. The group, who are all residents of Burnett Ave., a road southwest of the corner of Grand Ave. and Rte. 83, are concerned with the traffic flow in their neighborhood. They said they have no opposition to the bus garage. Nancy Schoen, a former village trustee, said the village tried to put an access road there in 1981 while she was on the board, but they could not get permission from the state or the property owners. Lake Villa Village Mayor Joyce Frayer said she does not believe the village should have to pick up the entire cost of the road since the school district serves the entire township.

Poisons trustee

LAKE ZURICH—Police are still investigating a possible poisoning incident that happened to a Lake Zurich trustee. As reported in a local daily newspaper, Trustee Gary L. Winchester, after becoming "violently ill," was told a "foreign substance" was in his system after eating lunch in Schaumburg. The day after, Winchester received threatening phone calls that may have been related to the incident, but so far, according to the newspaper article nothing has been "chemically verified."

Drainage Dist. sues

ISLAND LAKE—The Slocum Lake Drainage Dist. and the Village of Wauconda will meet Sept. 13 to discuss a pending law suit. The Drainage Dist. has a suit pending against the Village of Wauconda for damages incurred when the village drained Bangs Lake sewage into Slocum Lake. Currently, the sewage now bypasses Slocum Lake and a new sewer treatment plant was built after the damages.

OK contract

GURNEE—The Gurnee Village board has announced that the water-line extension project will be awarded to Car-Min Construction. Car-Min, which submitted a low bid of $368,978.60, estimates that work on the project will begin in 35 to 40 days and will cost residents $18 per frontage foot. James Hayner, village administrator, warns that the per foot cost is only guaranteed "while Car-Min is actually there," and that the fee could rise for those residents who delay their hook-up until after principal installation is completed. The cost will require a 70 per cent commitment from individual streets, and the money must be paid in advance.

Seek tax hike

GRAYSLAKE—Grayslake Dist. 46 Board of Education, citing what officials call "a legitimate need for more space" will be seeking a tax hike in November. The board, culminating some 10 months of study, voted 6-0 Monday night to seek a $5,821,000 bond issue in the Nov. 7 election. Board member Susan Smith was not at the meeting.

Water main vote

ROUND LAKE PARK—The Round Lake Park Village Board has agreed to place a referendum on the Nov. 7 ballot concerning its water main replacement project. Park voters will be asked to approve $1,250,000 in general obligation bonds.

Gurnee hits county's impact study plan

Village of Gurnee officials are blasting a proposed study of impact of more than 1,000 acres annexed to the village this year.

The Lake County Board's Planning, Zoning and Building committee directed staff to prepare an impact study. The study would cover Gurnee's request for an intragovernmental agreement so sanitary sewer could service Grand Ave. south to Washington St. and from Hunt Club Rd. to Rte. 45.

"We've been before the committee three times,"

Gurnee Mayor Dick Welton said.

Welton said the village has always had a good track record working with Woodland Dist. 50 and Warren Twp. High School.

He said the village will continue with its public hearings on proposed single-family home projects.

The Trophy Club by the Lake Group and one by Lexington Homes. The Lexington Homes project had won a favorable recommendation from the Gurnee Plan Commission.

Warren Twp. High School Supt. Robert Shepherd said

Woodland Dist. 50 would be impacted more than the high school.

At a meeting of the public service committee of the board, residents of Oak Knoll and Orchard Valley subdivisions stated concerns about the developments.

"They thought it would be too dense," Warren Twp. Supt. Bob Depke said.

Lake County Board Chairman Norman Geary said there is precedent in other states for what the county is asking.

However, that is not Gurnee's opinion.

Fight to save wetlands

Residents of Long Lake, a middle class unincorporated community of 4,000 population in west Lake County, are circling the wagons for a classic environmental confrontation with one of the wealthiest families of America.

At stake is the future of Mud Lake, a small body of open water surrounded by nearly 300 acres of high-grade wetland that together with Long Lake, a recreational body of water of more than 600 acres, constitutes the drainage basin of an area encompassed by parts of Lake Villa and the Round Lake area, and a sector including parts of Wauconda, Ivanhoe and Mundelein.

Long Lake citizens are frightened by prospects that development of Mud Lake and the adjoining marsh, a major portion of 800 acres annexed to the Village of Round Lake 20 years ago and dubbed Lake Lure by the Pritzker family of Chicago, will have an adverse effect on the water quality of their lake and destroy natural flood control components of the watershed.

Prospects of Lake Lure development reported at 2,000 to 3,000 residential units and the accompanying environmental hazards come at a time when Long Lake residents feel they have nearly ended a 25-year battle to restore their lake to acceptable health standards. The lake was almost polluted to extinction by sewage effluent from a failing Round Lake Sanitary Dist. treatment works made inoperative nine years ago when the Lake County Public Works Dept. spearheaded formation of a regional sanitation system.

Beleaguered Long Lake residents feel they have to go to war again to save their lake, and you can't blame them.

Long Lake's environmental battle of the 1990s will likely be much different than the battle of the '60s and '70s to restore a body of water defiled by raw sewage and treatment plant nutrient by-products that produced algae blooms so profuse that foul-smelling layers of bluish-green, decaying algae growth grew so thick as to prevent boating. Black humor at the time labeled Long Lake as "one body of water you could walk on." The Lake County Health Dept. rated it the county's most polluted lake before clean-up efforts were initiated.

Now there are state and federal Environmental Protection Agency laws. Officialdom is more aware of the hazards of overdevelopment and tampering with precious wetlands. Most important, perhaps, is the fact that citizens are more aware of how uncontrolled growth can destroy environmentally sensitive areas. They are better educated, and they are not afraid to fight.

The impending Long Lake wetlands preservation battle will bring together an interesting set of players. One of them is Mayor Dick Welton of Gurnee, co-chairman of the Lake County Stormwater Management Agency. As the owner of Cub Foods, first phase of the Lake Lure development, Welton finds himself both part of the cause and part of the solution. The mayor of Round Lake is F. James Lumber, long-time trustee of the College of Lake County who possesses a well-earned record of public service for community betterment. Long Lake goes into the fray with an unusual team of resident volunteers whose talents include a marine biologist, registered civil engineer, former county board member, a conservation activist and natural resource watchdogs. This, plus the legacy of the late Ferdinand Lagerholm, a Long Lake resident who organized the citizens' committee that resulted in the creation of the Lake County Health Dept. more than a quarter century ago.

Long Lake citizens are battle tested. They have taken the first step in an impending collision with the Pritzkers by requesting the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. consider acquiring Lake Lure for open space.

It will be an interesting battle.

BADLY NEEDED

Adeline Geo-Karis to the rescue!

by VIRGINIA PARK

Two recent decisions by the United States Supreme Court were not well received by the populace at large.

The approval of burning one of the symbols of our nationality, our flag, was particularly offensive to most patriotic Americans. And the matter of restrictions on abortion aroused even more controversy on that point than had been expressed up to that time.

Very well known are the views of the fundamentalists who have been demonstrating their opposition to abortion for many years. Pro-Life and Pro-Family groups have been out in front, too. Also the official doctrine of the Catholic Church that abortion is immoral and that life must be protected, beginning at conception, has been well publicized.

However, less well known are the views of many other religious groups. The fact that a resolution of the Episcopal Church USA in 1967, giving its support for women's rights over their own bodies, was reaffirmed at its General Convention in 1988 has received very little public notice.

A similar resolution was made by the United Church of Christ in 1979 to reaffirm full freedom of choice for persons concerned in making decisions about pregnancy. Also the Presbyterian Church (USA) "adheres to basic respect for individual conscience about abortion" because of the many differing views held by its members.

Within the Jewish tradition there is considerable agreement that the fetus is not a person before birth and that abortion, therefore, is not murder, but within the many strands of Judaism there is much disagreement beyond that point.

All these pieces of information were adapted from an amicus brief on behalf of 36 religious organizations in Webster vs. Reproductive Services now in the supreme court, by Martha Minow and Aviam Soifer, professors of law at Harvard and Boston Universities, respectively. The adaption was published in the Chicago Tribune of May 18, 1989.

It seems to be apparent from the fact that so many churches are addressing the problem of abortion that it is actually a religious issue. How does that stack up with the First Amendment to our Constitution, which says: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof?"

Minow and Soifer further state that, "Restrictions on abortion . . . abridge the right to privacy and also the doctrines reserving freedom of conscience and religion."

Commentary

Addressing this very difficult problem now facing all state legislators, State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis has introduced into our Illinois Assembly a joint resolution proposing a state-wide advisory referendum to record the preferences, pro-choice or anti-abortion, of the voters of this state.

"This is a very personal and sensitive issue," she says, "and we in the legislature need guidance as to what should be the proper course to take to suit the wishes of a majority of our constituents."

Has anyone taking a poll ever asked you what your views were on abortion? This referendum would be a chance to hear from every voter in the state, and that is the basic promise of democracy, that we all have a part in our government, and that we elect people to see that our wishes are put into law.

If you think this is a proper way to handle this controversial problem, please let your state representative and state senator know that you would like to see them approve such an advisory referendum.

Editor's note: Virginia Park writes regularly on topics of public interest. She is a resident of Long Grove.

Fish buyers will promote conservation

by BILL SCHROEDER

There isn't anything fishy about the semi-annual fish sale Saturday, Sept. 16, sponsored by the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation Dist.

The district holds a spring and fall fish sale to raise funds for its important conservation work, especially as one of the key players in preservation of wetlands. The organization should be better known than it is.

On sale are largemouth bass, hybrid sunfish, channel catfish, fathead minnows and triploid white amur, all ideal fish for stocking ponds and small lakes. A minimum of $25 order is required. Orders can be placed by calling (312)223-1056 by Tuesday, Sept. 5. Jeff Kozel, staff conservationist, can provide information about different species.

In case you're wondering, fish are bagged with oxygen in water-filled plastic bags for safe transfer. Bass up to eight inches and catfish up to 10 inches are available.

The soil and water district is a more important link than ever in the network of organizations available to the public in the battle to maintain open space and protect natural resources. If you don't have a pond, tell someone who does. The district will make good use of the money it raises.

FOREMAN WAITING—Lake County State's Atty. Fred Foreman wasn't snubbed by Sec. of State Jim Edgar in his unsuccessful bid to become Edgar's running mate next year. Youth and lack of name recognition ruled against Foreman who took Edgar's rejection in stride and started distributing "Foreman in 1990" buttons. "That leaves my options open," the third term state's attorney remarked. Foreman's options include going for the judiciary, a federal appointment, other state ticket openings and running for reelection. One thing is certain. The lanky prosecutor is going to spend more time getting acquainted with central and southern Illinois geography.

SAFETY QUESTIONS—A death threat received by Lake Zurich Trustee Gary Winchester and a decision not to stage a political picnic at the Fremont Twp. home of Sheriff and Mrs. Clinton Grinnell verifies that in these restless days even local officials have to be wary about where they go and what they do.

The threat to Winchester indicates how ugly things can get when village officials draw the line on more building. Grinnell picnic planners felt security provisions would be lacking at the sheriff's home, not to mention adverse ramifications about "the world" knowing the home address of Lake County's top lawman.

*****

CORRECTION—It was incorrectly stated in a recent column that the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. contains 4,000 acres. The district's holdings actually are closer to 14,000 acres. Long-range plans still call for acquisition of about 10,000 acres more.

Politically Speaking

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

Township meetings in Libertyville have known to become long and somewhat heated since Ralph Swank, Jr., became supervisor in April. Some people thought the twice-a-month meetings were like the days of old when anyone could speak for a half hour if they wanted.

Not so.

As of August anyone who wants to talk must call the township office in advance. Those who don't aren't put on the agenda.

"It's an informal policy the board has put into effect," Swank said of having callers list the subject matter and amount of time they want.

"I'm just trying to be organized," he said of the new policy. "This way the board can prepare an answer for the speaker. The other problem we have eliminated is the large number of people who spoke endlessly."

John Balen has done it again. The outspoken Dist. 2 County Board member has vowed to leave office next year.

By then the outspoken, often brash, sometimes redundant, frequently trying Waukegan Democrat will have 22 years of elected county service to his credit.

Whenever Balen gets frustrated with his colleagues or their actions he vows to abandon ship. The latest outburst happened during an August meeting of the Forest Preserve Dist. It happened during deliberations on an unsuccessful $120 million bond issue and failure to buy more land in the Waukegan and Shields Twps. district he represents.

No one on the County Board or Forest Preserve Dist. actually believes the onetime steelworker union leader can survive without politics. They've heard him make the idle threat too many times. That's just John.

Jim Edgar's campaign for governor of Illinois is in good hands. One pair of them belongs to Mark Peterson. He is the son of state Rep. William Peterson (R-Prairie View) of the 60th Dist.

An assistant to Edgar for five years, Peterson will take a leave of absence when it gets close to the December filing date. Then he will work fulltime on getting his boss elected to the No. 1 job in Illinois.

Peterson has the credentials. He worked under state chairman Samuel Skinner (now secretary of the U. S. Dept. of Transportation) on George Bush's 1988 presidential election campaign. Past campaigns have included the unsuccessful one for U.S. Sen. Charles Percy (R-Illinois) and Edgar's first try for secretary of state five years ago.

Peterson cut his political campaign teeth on dad's first elections as Buffalo Grove trustee in the 1970s. "As far as I know Mark is happy being a political strategist," dad said. "He doesn't have any aspirations of his own for political office."

Recycling is the popular thing to do these days. Libertyville started curbside recycling last month. It joins Grayslake, Mundelein and Buffalo Grove in is between 80 and 90 percent. It then levels off to between 60 and 70 percent.

What do people dislike most about recycling? Taking the basket of recyclables to the curb? Saving the glass, newspapers and cans? The smell? None of the above.

It's washing out the cans, Murphy said. Men, especially, hate that part of recycling.

making the environment a little bit better.

But not everyone likes to recycle. When local programs initially start there is a lot of interest, says Phil Murphy of the Antioch office of Waste Management, Inc., which handles the Grayslake and Libertyville recycling programs. Initial interest

Dist. 4 County Board member, says she will be her own woman in next year's election. She has let it be known she will not run on a ticket with any other candidate or would-be candidate. Richard Klemm, the 63rd Dist. state representative from Crystal Lake, is said to be alling. He has dropped off the political picnic circuit for a few weeks to nurse an ailing back.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

North Chicago

The Prairie State 2000 Authority is granting Liquid Controls Corp. of North Chicago $23,793 for the training of 75 employees in production techniques. Liquid Controls Corp. is a manufacturer of high accuracy liquid measurement meters. In order to qualify for the grants, Illinois employees must demonstrate financial need and develop a program to retrain employees in new technologies.

Jack W. Schuler, 49, has resigned as president and chief operating officer of Abbott Labs, according to Crain's Chicago Business. Crain's reports that the resignation was due to disagreements between Schuler and Chairman Robert A. Schoellhorn.

Deerfield

The Meridian Group, a computer-leasing firm based in Deerfield, has acquired Software Funding International Inc., also of Deerfield, for the purpose of providing third-party software leasing services. The leasing company will be called Meridian Software Funding, Inc., and will relocate to Meridian's Deerfield headquarters.

Lake County

Rori Edmonds of Lindenhurst and David Friend of Gurnee are two of 37 junior high students that have been selected as finalists in the Citicorp Savings "Stay in School" calendar art contest. Twelve winners will be named later this summer. The purpose of the contest is to stress the importance of education through a four-color calendar that will be available free of charge this fall.

Wauconda

Opening Diamond Auto is in the process of building a self-storage facility immediately behind their present location at 330 S. Main St. in Wauconda. This facility will be called Main St. Self Storage and will have approximately 110 units. Unit sizes will vary from 25 to 300 square feet. The facility will be completely paved, lighted and fenced. The in-town location and easy access will make Main St. Self Storage very convenient for both businesses and homeowners.

Lake Forest

Lake Forest Joint Venture has broken ground for Sunset Corners of Lake Forest, an upscale neighborhood shopping center on a six and a half acre parcel of commercially zoned land at Conway and Waukegan Rds. L.J. Sheridan & Co. is the development, leasing and management agent for the 70,000 square-foot shopping center, which will contain as many as 17 stores. The anchor tenant will be Sunset Foods Country Corners, which has been in its present location on the site for 25 years. It will more than double its present 14,000 square feet to 31,000 square feet. Other target businesses are a pharmacy, hardware and women's ready-to-wear stores, as well as other quality neighborhood enterprises.

Marks depends on capable management for two dealerships

by BECKY JOHNS
Lakeland Newspapers

"I think the auto business is becoming more multi-dealership. Many dealers acquire other dealerships because of the savings it affords," said Libertyville Lincoln-Mercury owner Julius Marks.

Marks, who has owned Libertyville Lincoln-Mercury for the past 17 years, recently purchased 20-year-old Sorensen Chevrolet in Waukegan. Prior to Libertyville Lincoln-Mercury, Marks owned Budget Rent-A-Car at O'Hare, but Marks hasn't outgrown Budget entirely. He still sells the company's fleet cars.

"One difference when I first entered (the car retail) business, was that we had a small facility. It had to be added on to immediately. It was a one-car showroom. We expanded three times," Marks stated.

Marks' facility is currently undergoing another renovation. Marks takes pride in the fact this his dealership has been number one in the country in volume for the past three years, and the country's 11th largest in retail. "I think the biggest challenge in going into business (for myself) was attracting capable and competent management," said Marks.

Marks' plans for the future center mostly on the Sorensen purchase. "With (Sorensen) Chevrolet, they've been around for 20 years. They have a strong customer base. We plan to enlarge and be competitive in the market. The key to that is to do everything possible to satisfy the customer."

"I need to establish a management base that has the same goals and objectives as me. Waukegan is a dynamic market. My goal is to market the Chevrolet product very competitively, develop the car and truck market, and improve the existing facilities and volume of the dealership," said Marks.

Part of this, he continued, would be to build on the reputation of Jim Sorensen.

"In the future, I'd like to be a dealer that is number one in customer satisfaction and that represents the Chevrolet product with a sense of integrity," Marks said.

Owner-involved building defrays cost

Years ago it was called "sweat equity" and was the last resort of cash-short blue collar workers desperate for a home of their own. More recently, families who affordable because prices have risen much faster than incomes. According to the Federal Bureau of Census, median family income increased 183 percent in the last increasingly difficult for first time home buyers to obtain financing by tightening their qualifications, limiting housing costs to 25 percent of income compared to 33 percent two years ago.

The result of these financial pressures on younger families is that the traditional American dream of home ownership is becoming more unattainable every year. It is partly for this reason that the National Assn. of Home Builders estimates one out of three home buyers is now turning to some form of owner-involved home building as a solution. Many of them are discovering that they can save on the construction costs and reduce down payment requirements by doing all or part of the work themselves.

"We started in 1946. We recognized a need and over the years developed a line of custom pre-cut materials, educational programs and construction manuals, along with financing and other assistance to make it easier for owner involved homebuilders."—Mike Krafft of Miles Homes.

built all or part of their home were referred to as do-it-yourself home builders. Today the term is "being their own general contractor," and they are doing all or part of the work themselves.

The big reason for the renewed interest in owner-involved construction is that homes are becoming increasingly less

16 years while median home prices rose by 249 percent. As a result, after 40 years of increases, the percentage of American families who own homes had declined every year since 1980, going from 65.6 million to 63.8 million in 1986.

In addition to soaring construction costs, many mortgage lenders also made it

BUSINESS BRIEFS

North Chicago

The Prairie State 2000 Authority is granting Liquid Controls Corp. of North Chicago $23,793 for the training of 75 employees in production techniques. Liquid Controls Corp. is a manufacturer of high accuracy liquid measurement meters. In order to qualify for the grants, Illinois employees must demonstrate financial need and develop a program to retrain employees in new technologies.

Jack W. Schuler, 49, has resigned as president and chief operating officer of Abbott Labs, according to Crain's Chicago Business. Crain's reports that the resignation was due to disagreements between Schuler and Chairman Robert A. Schoellhorn.

Deerfield

The Meridian Group, a computer-leasing firm based in Deerfield, has acquired Software Funding International Inc., also of Deerfield, for the purpose of providing third-party software leasing services. The leasing company will be called Meridian Software Funding, Inc., and will relocate to Meridian's Deerfield headquarters.

Lake County

Rori Edmonds of Lindenhurst and David Friend of Gurnee are two of 37 junior high students that have been selected as finalists in the Citicorp Savings "Stay in School" calendar art contest. Twelve winners will be named later this summer. The purpose of the contest is to stress the importance of education through a four-color calendar that will be available free of charge this fall.

Wauconda

Opening Diamond Auto is in the process of building a self-storage facility immediately behind their present location at 330 S. Main St. in Wauconda. This facility will be called Main St. Self Storage and will have approximately 110 units. Unit sizes will vary from 25 to 300 square feet. The facility will be completely paved, lighted and fenced. The in-town location and easy access will make Main St. Self Storage very convenient for both businesses and homeowners.

Lake Forest

Lake Forest Joint Venture has broken ground for Sunset Corners of Lake Forest, an upscale neighborhood shopping center on a six and a half acre parcel of commercially zoned land at Conway and Waukegan Rds. L.J. Sheridan & Co. is the development, leasing and management agent for the 70,000 square-foot shopping center, which will contain as many as 17 stores. The anchor tenant will be Sunset Foods Country Corners, which has been in its present location on the site for 25 years. It will more than double its present 14,000 square feet to 31,000 square feet. Other target businesses are a pharmacy, hardware and women's ready-to-wear stores, as well as other quality neighborhood enterprises.

Number one dealer

Julius Marks, owner of Marks Lincoln-Mercury in Libertyville and Sorensen Chevrolet in Waukegan, stops running for just a minute for this photo opportunity. Marks says his future plans include building on the Sorensen reputation to make the Waukegan Chevrolet dealership number one in customer satisfaction. ## Marks depends on capable management for two dealerships

by BECKY JOHNS
Lakeland Newspapers

"I think the auto business is becoming more multi-dealership. Many dealers acquire other dealerships because of the savings it affords," said Libertyville Lincoln-Mercury owner Julius Marks.

Marks, who has owned Libertyville Lincoln-Mercury for the past 17 years, recently purchased 20-year-old Sorensen Chevrolet in Waukegan. Prior to Libertyville Lincoln-Mercury, Marks owned Budget Rent-a-Car at O'Hare, but Marks hasn't outgrown Budget entirely. He still sells the company's fleet cars.

"One difference when I first entered (the car retail) business, was that we had a small facility. It had to be added on to immediately. It was a one-car showroom. We expanded three times," Marks stated.

Marks' facility is currently undergoing another renovation. Marks takes pride in the fact this his dealership has been number one in the country in volume for the past three years, and the country's 11th largest in retail. "I think the biggest challenge in going into business (for myself) was attracting capable and competent management," said Marks.

Marks' plans for the future center mostly on the Sorensen purchase. "With (Sorensen) Chevrolet, they've been around for 20 years. They have a strong customer base. We plan to enlarge and be competitive in the market. The key to that is to do everything possible to satisfy the customer."

"I need to establish a management base that has the same goals and objectives as me. Waukegan is a dynamic market. My goal is to market the Chevrolet product very competitively, develop the car and truck market, and improve the existing facilities and volume of the dealership," said Marks.

Part of this, he continued, would be to build on the reputation of Jim Sorensen.

"In the future, I'd like to be a dealer that is number one in customer satisfaction and that represents the Chevrolet product with a sense of integrity," Marks said.

Owner-involved building defrays cost

Years ago it was called "sweat equity" and was the last resort of cash-short blue collar workers desperate for a home of their own. More recently, families who affordable because prices have risen much faster than incomes. According to the Federal Bureau of Census, median family income increased 183 percent in the last built all or part of their home were referred to as do-it-yourself home builders. Today the term is "being their own general contractor," and they are doing all or part of the work themselves.

The big reason for the renewed interest in owner-involved construction is that homes are becoming increasingly less

16 years while median home prices rose by 249 percent. As a result, after 40 years of increases, the percentage of American families who own homes had declined every year since 1980, going from 65.6 million to 63.8 million in 1986.

In addition to soaring construction costs, many mortgage lenders also made it increasingly difficult for first time home buyers to obtain financing by tightening their qualifications, limiting housing costs to 25 percent of income compared to 33 percent two years ago.

The result of these financial pressures on younger families is that the traditional American dream of home ownership is becoming more unattainable every year. It is partly for this reason that the National Assn. of Home Builders estimates one out of three home buyers is now turning to some form of owner-involved home building as a solution. Many of them are discovering that they can save on the construction costs and reduce down payment requirements by doing all or part of the work themselves.

A scary mortgage idea? Defrays cost

by CHANGING TIMES
THE KIPLINGER MAGAZINE
Are you ready for PLAMs?

No, they're not sound effects from a Batman episode. PLAM is an acronym for price-level-adjusted mortgage, a new type of loan that lenders might offer this fall.

PLAMs were devised by the Department of Housing and Urban Development to give home buyers a shot at otherwise unaffordable housing. Their biggest selling points, say HUD officials, are that they come with rock-bottom introductory rates — lower than those of adjustable-rate mortgages — and monthly payments that adjust over time to match changes in the economy.

When fixed-rate, 30-year mortgages carry a 10 percent rate, initial rates on PLAMs will probably be 3 percent to 5 percent, which would nearly halve the monthly payments on a $100,000 loan. The low payments will be possible early in the loan, says HUD, because the payments and the loan balance are pegged to inflation — the consumer price index — instead of interest rates. As inflation rises, the payments and the balance of the loan also rise.

In the first years of the loan monthly payments would jump less than ARM payments. Suppose, for example, inflation is 6 percent. An ARM rate that jumps from 7 to 9 percent from one year to the next would boost a $665 mortgage payment by 21 percent, to $804. The same beginning PLAM payment, increasing at a 6 percent rate of inflation, would rise to $705.

Too good to be true, you say? Right. The first and most compelling drawback, says Changing Times magazine, is that what you owe may double during the course of the loan. The second is there is no limit on how high your payments can go; PLAM increases have no cap, unlike typical ARMs.

PLAMs are designed to amortize over 30 years with constant payments — constant as long as there is no inflation.

But there will be inflation. HUD assumes inflation of 4 percent during the next three decades. So by year 10, payments for a home with a $100,000 PLAM would grow from $477 to $862 a month, and the loan balance would grow to $147,533.

Under the PLAM, your loan balance would not begin to decline until year 15, when the balance would be $192,262 and payments would reach $1,340. By year 30, payments under the fixed-rate mortgage would still be $877. PLAM payments would hit $3,023. To keep the same proportion of your income going toward housing under a PLAM, your income in year 30 would have to be $21,632 a month, or nearly $260,000 a year.

Homes. "We started in 1946. We recognized a need and over the years developed a line of custom pre-cut materials, educational programs and construction manuals. Along with financing and other assistance to make it easier for owner-involved homebuilders," says Mike Krafft to Miles Homes, based in Schaumburg. "To date we have helped over 30,000 customers."

According to Krafft, the company's latest design catalog contains over 80 floor plans. Prices range from $25,000 to 60,000 for the basic package which normally includes building and finishing materials, plumbing, heating and electrical. The company's 1989 program now offers a permanent Mortgage Financing option. This new Permanent Financing Option for qualified buyers is available through Plymouth Capital Company, an affiliate company of Miles Homes Inc.

"While we always offered interest-only construction financing with the principal repaid when the customer completes construction and obtains a mortgage, our new permanent mortgage financing option removes the element of uncertainty for the owner-builder and offers them an attractive new option in financing," says Krafft.

According to Miles Homes, the 1989 program offers owner-involved homebuilders a home building and financing package that includes custom pre-cut materials, construction financing, cash allowances for professional assistance, including foundation, well and septic allowances and other allowances for qualified buyers. No down payment is required on Miles materials and the building lot usually does not need to be paid in full prior to construction.

How much can an owner-involved home builder save? According to Krafft, the savings from building your own home can be substantial, but vary greatly from area to area depending on how much work is actually done by the owner-involved home builder. "We have many customers who tell us they saved 20 to 60 percent compared to having the house built by a professional builder," says Krafft. "An interesting trend is that some of our customers apply part of their savings to building a bigger house in a better neighborhood or to adding more luxurious bathrooms or kitchens."

Building a home of your own is not an impossible dream... Miles has helped over 30,000 families achieve their dream of owning their own homes.

FINANCIAL FOCUS

reported by Brosius D'Arcy

Understanding risk is an essential part of investing. For bond buyers, it's especially important because their dollars are committed for a number of years.

That's why bond ratings are so important. They represent the evaluation, rating and monitoring of bonds by one or more rating agencies.

These agencies examine bond issuers and determine what level of risk the public can expect from bonds issued by that company.

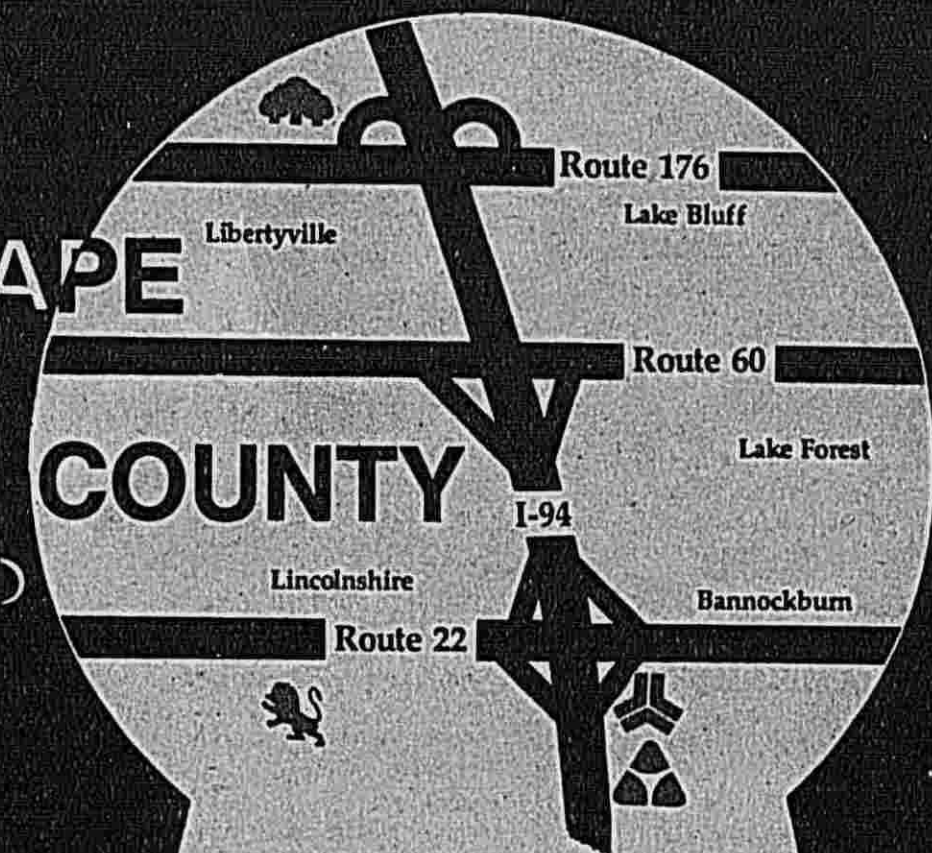

Then, each agency assigns a rating symbol to each bond. Usually, rating symbols are specific letters of the alphabet or numerals. The slight difference between rating symbols used by different agencies is significant because it lets you know which agency assigned the rating.

If a bond has no rating, it doesn't necessarily mean it's risky. In fact, the absence of a rating might not be related to quality.

Do your homework before invest, and then keep close track of your investment through bond ratings. They'll keep you updated as to any significant changes your investment may undergo.

1989 Changes In Assessed Valuations

Lakeland
Newspapers
September 1, 1989

LEGAL ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR 1989 OFFICIAL ASSESSMENT LIST:

This publication is the official notice to property owners of the 1989 changes of land and improvements in the Township of Antioch. The 1989 assessments as published are those determined by the Assessor and/or the Supervisor of Assessments. It is the duty of the Assessor to assess all taxable property on a uniform basis of valuation so that the assessed values of the various properties are a just and equal assessment of such properties according to law. The assessment roll recording the values of property determines only the distribution of the total tax load among the individual property owners. The Township Assessor and/or the Supervisor of Assessments has no control over the amount of taxes levied, nor the public expenditures. The amount of these assessed values (subject to state equalization), minus applicable exemptions, multiplied by the established tax rate, determines the amount of your tax bill. The Assessor does not make the rate; he merely finds the value of your property.

EQUALIZATION

The following printed assessments, as well as all other assessments in the township, are shown at 33.33% of market value, having been equalized to that level by the Supervisor of Assessments, who has applied a factor of 1.0759 to all values except those assessed under the provision of Secs. 20e, 20g-1, 20k and 44.1 of the Revenue Act of 1939, as amended. Application of the township equalization factor represents a 7.59 percentage increase in assessments.

To determine the market value of your property, add the total of the land and the total of the building (s) and divide the result by 0.3333. If it appears that the resulting number is higher than the market value of the property, you may be over-assessed. If the resulting number is less than your opinion of the market value, the assessment may be low.

ARRANGMENT OF LIST

If you live in an incorporated area (city or village), your property is listed under the name of your city or village, which will be in alphabetical order. Property owners living on the same street will be listed as follows:

First-vacant property or improved property with no street number.

Second-property with street number listed in numerical order (may be approximate). If you live in an unincorporated area, the property is listed alphabetically by post office and street name. Then, property without street numbers will be listed first followed by numbered properties in numerical order.

INFORMATION ON ASSESSMENTS

Any property owner who has any question in regard to the assessment of their property should call the local Township Assessor's office. This publication does not reflect reductions for Homestead Limited Exemptions, Senior Homestead Exemptions, Homestead Improvement Exemptions or Disabled Veteran's Exemptions. The aforementioned exemptions are not removed from the assessment until the time of billing. You will see them removed on your tax bill, with a notation as to which exemptions have been applied.

Note that land value and building value appear separately and should be added together to arrive at a total assessed value. These values are subject to a state adjustment factor certified to the County Clerk by the Illinois Department of Revenue. Any property owner who objects to the amount of their assessment should file a complaint in writing with the Board of Review from June First to September 10, 1989, or until 30 (thirty) days after publication, whichever is later. Complaints must be on the prescribed form and can be obtained by telephoning 360-6609, or by written request to the Supervisor of Assessments, 18 North County Street, Waukegan, IL 60085-4339.

Question regarding the grid system used in determining address number should be directed to the Lake County Map Services Department, whose telephone number is 360-6373.

Lake County boom one of planned growth

Residential property values in Lake County have jumped in the last few years, as the area becomes a hot spot for home buyers.

"The boom in Lake County was kicked off by a pent-up demand and will continue despite a general softening in the rest of the Chicago-area market," predicts Eve B. Lee, exclusive broker for several Lake County developments, including Daybreak Farm in Libertyville.

According to county assessor statements, residential property values rose by 11 percent in Lake County, as compared to 6 percent in DuPage, between 1987 and 1988.

Unlike the frenzied building in other areas, the Lake County boom is one of planned growth.

"Lake County residents have long been devoted to open space and discouraged increased development. Twenty-five years ago speculators predicted the area would undergo a "Megalopolis Effect" (a single metropolitan area extending from Chicago to Milwaukee). The Lake County open space advocates kept that from happening, though, through zoning and control of sewers and road improvements," according to Lee.

"The rural, suburban atmosphere is part of our appeal and was an integral component of the land development plan that was created in 1982 by the Lake County Planning Commission," says Lee, a member and past president.

After a series of 400 meetings and public hearings, the commission, headed by Lee, created a new zoning ordinance in December of 1989 to implement the plan and encourage organized development.

According to Lee, Daybreak Farm is an example of the kind of development outlined by the commission. The Libertyville single-home community has open space within the development, as well as on its borders, with Libertyville Twp. Open Space on the south and the Lake County Forest Preserve to the west. Set on 88-acres of meadows, woods and fresh water ponds, Daybreak Farm offers one-acre-plus homesites for custom country estates.

"Daybreak Farm maximizes the open space concept and is designed to take advantage of existing woods and ponds. Home buyers are guaranteed that the wooded land surrounding them will not change," says Lee.

Open space brings buyers to Copperfield

Probably the two most popular reasons for buyers to purchase land are the appeal of open spaces and a feeling of success that comes with building a house of your own.

"Building the dream house is probably the most satisfying feature of buying land," said Joan Ditchman, vice president of sales and marketing for Midwest Development Corporation, developers of Copperfield, a community of 87 homesites in Hawthorn Woods. "These people are buying land for their dream home and certainly feel an element of success in their lives. They have worked hard for this."

Sites at Copperfield are one- to two-acres and range from $80,000 to $115,000. Forty-one sites have been sold.

Red Seal appoints new members

Two new employees have joined Northbrook-based Red Seal Development Corporation.

Robin Rabe, 29, has been named marketing administrator, announced Mark Putterman, vice president.

Rabe formerly was an account executive with the Gibbens Company, a cost-control service located in Schiller park.

Sabina Regulinski, 26, has joined Red Seal as sales consultant for Mallard Ridge Estates, Putterman also announced.

Regulinski was formerly a directory sales representative for Southwestern Bell.

Millburn Mutual votes surety firms merger

The merger of Millburn Mutual Insurance Co. one of Lake County's oldest businesses, with Dunham and Chemung Mutual Insurance Co. was approved by the unanimous vote of stockholders of the two insurance companies.

Policyholders met at Richmond in separate meetings to discuss the recommendations of the respective boards of directors to approve the merger.

Millburn Mutual was founded in 1855 and has headquartered in Lake Villa. Dunham and Chemung will have an agent in that community. Dunham and Chemung, founded in 1882, headquarters in Harvard.

Robert Stoxen, president of the merged company, said the merger will become effective with the approval of the Illinois Department of Insurance, probably Sept. 1. "The merger will provide a stronger company with rate stabilized and with a high level of service," Stoxen said.

The merger is the latest in a series of mergers combining farm mutual companies in the state, a trend Stoxen feels will continue and bring about stronger regional coverage. Both Dunham and Chemung and Millburn Mutual have provided farm, home owner and rental dwelling coverage.

In 1967 Alden Township Mutual merged with Millburn Mutual. On Jan. 1, 1989 Dunham and Chemung merged with North Township Mutual, a small local agency in McHenry County.

Descendants of many long-time families in McHenry and Lake counties have been policyholders for many years. Familiar names today - such as McClelland, Walters, Fritz, Olbrich, Stoxen, Wells, Hughes and Book - were among early policyholder families. A good example of the family interest is represented by the Denman family serving as secretary of Millburn Mutual for 72 years: Jesse from 1917-1955; Robert, 1955-1976, and Carol from 1976 until the merger which she recorded and signed papers in a final action for the 134-year-old insurance company.

Two members of the Millburn Mutual Insurance Company have joined the Dunham and Chemung board, which was expanded to nine members. The nine members are: Robert Stoxen, Harvard, president; Dan Frost, Harvard, vice president; Phyllis Less, Harvard, secretary-treasurer; Howard Bonner, Lake Villa; Gordon Lohmeyer, Woodstock; Avery Leable, Lake Villa; Robert Fritz, Harvard; Kent Frisbie, Woodstock; and Robert Hughes, Woodstock.

It's wise to wake up old money

by ALAN NADOLNA

One of the most common investment mistakes is the failure to periodically review, assess and reallocate existing assets.

Many individuals have IRA accounts, Keogh plans, 401K accounts, tax sheltered annuities, certificate of deposits and savings accounts. Often these have been in place for several years and have been ignored in terms of investment performance.

Teachers, doctors, nurses and other employees of non-profit organizations are entitled to contribute to Tax Sheltered Annuity accounts. Many non profit organizations restrict the number of annuities to which they will allow employees to contribute. Year after year, monies - up to 20 percent of gross income - are deposited into these contracts.

When we have done portfolio analysis on clients, we have often found thousands of dollars sitting in contracts paying as little as 4 percent interest, while competitive annuities are crediting 9 percent.

Accumulated funds can be moved - tax free - to any annuity of the clients' choice, without permission of the employer. We have doubled interest earnings for clients with a simple transaction.

Since the IRA regulations were changed, many individuals no longer contribute to annual IRA's. However, the existing IRA's are still maintained as tax free accumulation funds.

What seemed like a good investment or portfolio mix in prior years may no longer make sense. Some investments work well with annual contributions, but are not well suited for a fixed amount. Monies are often sitting in bank, brokerage firms and insurance company accounts for years, with little attention to performance.

The law allows the rolling over of funds from one IRA account to another and places no restrictions on the substitution of one investment for a better one. It is merely a matter of appraisal and decision, followed by the proper procedures to move to a better performing investment vehicle.

As employment patterns change, we find funds getting overlooked. Self employed individuals, directors, part-timers and moonlighters all have had the opportunity to utilize the Keogh retirement plan. Many of these plans have been frozen after the sponsor changed employment or incorporated his or her business or gave up the enterprise that was generating the self employment income.

Here again we have found large sums that have been literally forgotten. Accounts have been established and ignored because annual contributions are no longer available.

There are a surprising number of people who have no idea that funds in any of the above accounts can be reallocated to other investments. Even more interesting is that many people are unaware of their ability to move funds as they see fit. Several clients have indicated that they were under the impression that brokerage IRA accounts, annuities, and bank accounts for Keogh plans had to remain with the present sponsor.

One fairly new area of this type of investor inertia is the 401K plans currently very popular with corporations. Employees elect an investment option or mix and then leave things alone. This is the same type of passive behavior mentioned above.

that has experience in dealing with retirement accounts of all types.

This Way to Wealth

If you are fortunate enough to have an advisor that periodically reviews all investments and accumulations, you may be well ahead of the many individuals who initiate programs and then literally ignore them.

Klein observes 20 years with Waukegan company

Willis F. Klein of Fox Lake, an agent with the Prudential Waukegan district office in the Belvidere Office Plaza, 2835 Belvidere St., celebrated his 20th anniversary with the company.

Since joining Prudential in 1969, Klein has received many honors, including four President's Citation awards for sales and service leadership. He is also a fellow of the Life Underwriters Training Council program.

The son of Lucille Klein of Fox Lake, he is a graduate of Grant High School. Klein served in the U.S. Army in Vietnam, where he received the Purple Heart. He has been active locally in the American Legion and Disabled American Veterans.

Klein and his wife, Denise, have four daughters—Jill, 19; Kristine, 16; Erin, 14; and Katie, 11.

Grayslake sets Sept. 24 hearing

Grayslake residents will be able to learn more about a Lake County Health Dept. report on Gray's Lake Sept. 24.

Park district officials will hold a public hearing at 7 p.m. at Grayslake Community High School to discuss the report.

One of the highlights of the report was to recommend a single governing entity for the 78.8 acre lake.

Copies of the report are available at Grayslake Area Public Library, Grayslake Village Hall or Grayslake Park Dist.

The Health Dept. Lakes Management Unity study was commissioned by both the village and the park district.

"We're hopeful that this study and the cooperation between the village and the park district will make it possible for the community residents to have a healthy lake for their recreational enjoyment. It's good to know that by dealing with such issues as erosion and leaf burning we can stop damaging our lake," Grayslake Community Park Dist. President Jill Koch said.

Grayslake Community Park Dist. Dir. John Wilson said a flyer will be distributed to the schools that summarizes the report. An original flyer was prepared by the Lakes Management Unit.

Injuries cause of fatality

A 53-year-old Lindenhurst man who was fatally injured Monday when his northbound car veered out of control, and struck a tree on the west side of Hunt Club Rd. at approximately 5:50 p.m. Monday died of massive blunt trauma, according to Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson.

The man, John Swanson, of 221 S. Briar Ln., sustained massive injuries to the head, chest and abdomen, Richardson said. An autopsy was performed Tuesday to determine whether a heart attack or other disablement inhibited Swanson's driving ability.

Richardson said the reason the car went out of control and crossed the southbound lane of Hunt Club Rd. has yet to be determined.

Life is just ducky

Mama Mallard likes surroundings of the James Gallagher home at 35608 N. Franklin St., Ingleside, so well that she has set up housekeeping. She has taken over the Gallagher pool to give her brood swimming lessons. Traffic noise from nearby Rollins Rd. is no distraction to Mrs. Mallard. This is second family she has raised this summer.

Fall league seeks suggestions

The Grayslake Community Park Dist. is seeking volunteers to help organize its youth instructional basketball program.

Persons interested in any phase of this program are encouraged to call the park office at (312) 223-PLAY and express their concerns and get involved.

Play is scheduled to begin in late September, however, much is needed to be done before that time for the program to be successful.

The park district has also re-announced its plans for the fall brochure.

Anticipated delivery date is Sept. 7. Registration for fall programs will take place Sept. 11-15 from 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. at the park district office, 243 Harvey Ave.

On Aug. 22, 22 senior citizens and adults from Grayslake Community Park

Dist. joined 22 senior citizens from Round Lake Area Park Dist. on a trip to Wrigley Field in Chicago.

The first place Cubbies fell to Cincinnati 7-2 but maintained their then one and one-half game lead over New York.

Ready for seniors' day

Avon Twp. provided bus service Wednesday for senior citizens attending 17th annual Lake County Senior Citizens' Recognition Day at Lakewood Forest Preserve. Service was made available at no cost through cooperation with Grayslake Community High School. Seniors met at Hawley Manor in Grayslake and

Film Review

A middle aged Rob Reiner has long dispelled the "Meatball" image of "All In The Family" with his excellent directing of big screen hits like "Princess Bride."

His latest, and one of his best efforts, "When Harry Met Sally," turns out to be one of this season's top pictures, not to mention a long awaited tender love story.

Billy Crystal and Meg Ryan star in this study of romantic relationships that is as real and up to date as today's headlines, with a fine touch of humorous humanism to be expected when experts like Reiner and Crystal turn out a product as clever and funny as any Woody Allen script, but add romantic charm that makes it even better than anything Allen has done.

The big question that weaves in and out of the plot is whether or not final commitment will ruin a 12-year romantic relationship.

The comedy is in the vein of Mel Brooks and Carl Reiner, the atmosphere the director was raised in, but the final product has Rob Reiner's own personal touch of actuality. Give this one 4.5 out of 5 stars.

Meg Ryan and Billy Crystal

Be there

Does your family constantly tell you that you make the best spaghetti sauce in this whole wide world? Why not enter the recipe in the Blue Ribbon Spaghetti Sauce Cook-Off, to be held during Waukegan's Fourth Annual Downtown Hoedown Country Music Festival! Deadline for entries is Sept. 6, at City of Waukegan Special Events Office, 106 Utica St.

Lots of things are going down at Tempel Farms in Wadsworth during the month of September that will interest horse lovers from all over Lake and Kenosha Counties.

"Canterbury Tails," a benefit for the American Heart Assn. of Lake County, which includes a horse show, cocktails, dinner and dancing, at 7 p.m., on Saturday, Sept. 9, comes first.

For those insatiable Elvis fans --- Rick Saucedo, Trent Carlini, and Dave Ehlert, the best Elvis impersonators in the U. S. A., Europe and Lake County respectively, will be getting together to do an Elvis Tribute Concert, at the Fiesta Palace in Waukegan, on Saturday, Sept. 9.

Don't forget, the music at Ravinia can also be enjoyed during the fall concert season which runs from October through Nov. 19, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings.

The Takacs String Quartet will be first on the Friday agenda, at 8 p.m., on Oct. 6.

Pianist Tzimon Barto opens the Saturday concerts at 8 p.m., on Oct. 7.

The best in Dressage

Olympic Festival Silver Medalist Lurena Belle will be among the champion riders that will be competing in one of the nation's most prestigious equestrian events, the American Horse Shows Assn./Miller's U. S. Dressage Championships, at Tempel Farms, Wadsworth, on Saturday, Sept. 16 and Sunday, Sept. 17. Highlights of the competition include musical freestyle, during which horse and rider perform dressage's most beautiful movements to music; and Grand Prix, a level performed at the Olympics.

Riders to vie at Tempel Farms

Hundreds of the nation's top dressage riders will compete at this year's AHSA/Miller's U.S. Dressage Championships, sponsored by Miller's Harness Co., East Rutherford, N.J.

The championships, considered to be one of the most prestigious competitions in the country, will be held at Tempel Farms, Wadsworth, on Sept. 16 and 17.

Riders from around the country, including members of the 1989 Olympic Festival dressage teams and current champions, will compete for up to $25,000 in horse equipment donated by Miller's. Dressage champions will also be named at competitions to be held in Costa Mesa, Calif., and Lexington, Va.

The AHSA/Miller's Championships will award titles in 15 divisions—four national levels and four international levels. Governed by the AHSA, national levels present competitions that test the horse's early training up to its point of readiness for international competition; international levels set the standards for any international competition, including the Olympics, World Championships and World Cup competitions.

The training system known as dressage (French for "training") is a meticulous and demanding one. The long years of development, tested at the progressively more difficult competition levels, result in a horse that is exceptionally supple and strong and which is willingly obedient to the demands of its rider. The eight to 10 years of training is a distinct contrast to the race horse, which usually reaches the peak of its competitive life in two to three years.

Dressage riders come from all different backgrounds, and they train and compete well past the time other athletes retire from active participation in their respective sports. "Because of the discipline required, it seems to be a sport well suited to older people," notes Jessica Ranshousen, 49, a 1960 and 1988 member of the U.S. Olympic dressage team.

Horses of all colors and sizes will be competing. Although almost any breed is suitable for dressage, the Warmblood, imported from Europe, has become increasingly popular among exhibitors because of its flowing gaits and stable temperament.

The AHSA/Miller's U.S. Dressage Championships are operated in accordance with the American Horse Shows Assn., the National Equestrian Federation of the United States and a group "A" member of the U. S. Olympic Committee.

Defenders sponsor Sabien at Opera House benefit

On Sunday, Sept. 24, Randy Sabien, a regularly featured artist on Prairie Home Companion and on Austin City Limits, will perform a benefit concert, with his quartet, for the McHenry County Defenders.

The concert will be held at the Woodstock Opera House starting at 7 p.m. Ticket price is $12 and $20. All seats are reserved.

"Sabien is something of a hybrid, representing the two distinct strains of jazz violin: the rough-hewn, strenuously swinging style that Venuti used to introduce the instrument to jazz in the 1930s and the lighter, elegant, and humorously virtuosic manner with which Stephane Grappelli complemented guitarist Django Reinhardt a few years later," says Neil Tenor, jazz critic with the Chicago Reader and host of Jazz Forum on WEEZ Radio.

Sabien has been developing his own style of jazz violin since he first heard Stephane Grappelli in 1976.

As an educator he has written articles for Downbeat and various teaching journals; conducts a one-week clinic for jazz strings each summer through the Univ. of Wisconsin; has published music for high school string groups; speaks to students across the country; and is editor of the "Jazz String Newsletter."

As a performer he has appeared in many formats from symphony orchestras to big bands, from jazz quartets to delicate collaborations with guitar.

The universal appeal of Sabien's music allows him to fit into the contemporary music scene, opening for folk artists Jim Post, Papa John Kolstand, Ellen McElwaine, and the Red Clay Ramblers, as well as the jazz club scene, opening for such greats as Jim Hall, Lionel Hampton and Stephane Grappelli.

McHenry County Defenders is an environmental organization of "citizens working for a healthy environment," formed in 1970.

PM&L starts new seat program

PM&L Theatre announces the beginning of its newest renovation campaign. The Adopt a Seat Fund.

President Larry Bernie announced that the board of directors, voted to approve this special renovation project. To secure the audience's comfort, PM&L wishes to replace the present seating with brand new chairs.

The present seats have been in the building for the past 13 years, purchased used from the Racine Theatre Guild when it moved to its new location.

There will be two types of donations accepted—the Solo Seat for $100 will entitle the giver to have his individual or family's name placed on a seat, and the Share-a-Seat for $50 will allow the giver to have his individual or family's name placed alongside someone else's name.

When the goal of 199 seats is met, a special drawing will be held. Names will be chosen to receive a number of special prizes to be announced in the near future.

Adler to fete 'Home'

"Home is more than four square walls" is an interdisciplinary focus on concepts of home which comes to the David Adler Cultural Center in September. This exciting program is both informative and thought-provoking. It explores the issues and images of home as a physical and spiritual dwelling place.

The opening reception on Sept. 16 from 5 to 8 p.m., will feature "Songs of Home," a mini-concert with Dought and Bonnie Miller. An exhibit of visual works by Chicago Artists Against Homelessness will be on display.

Waikiki not the only beach in Hawaii

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT NORTH STAR TRAVEL

For those not familiar with Hawaii, Waikiki is a beach in the City of Honolulu on the island of Oahu. Oahu is the most visited island of the Hawaiian islands. Waikiki Beach is often the only beach many tourists to Hawaii ever see, as it is where the vast majority of hotels are located.

This island offers a vast variety of beaches other than Waikiki, one of which should appeal to any visitor. The one I found to be the most beautiful, though often the most crowded, is Hanauma Bay Beach. It can be found by taking Kalaniana'ole Hwy. and going east for about three miles from Waikiki.

Snorkeling off this beach is quite popular, since it is also an underwater fish preserve. Colorful reef fish will literally eat out of your hand. (I found them to be quite fond of Birdseye frozen peas.)

For the more adventurous, Sandy Beach is the place to try body surfing. You'll find why they call it Sandy Beach the first time you try body surfing and discover more sand in your swim suit than on the beach!

Makapua Beach, across from Sea Life Park is also good for body surfing. You'll find a lifeguard on duty here, but exercise caution.

For some real wave action, try the north shore of Oahu. Here you'll find the famous surfing beaches of Banz Pipeline and Sunset. Unless you are an expert surfer, be content to sit on the beach and watch. The waves here are known to reach 25 to 30 feet. This is the site of many world-class surfing events.

For those who prefer calmer waters and fewer crowds, try Pokai Bay south of Mapaha, just off H-1. The water is calm, crystal clear and excellent for swimming or snorkeling. A lifeguard is usually on duty and restrooms are available.

Oahu's beaches are as varied as the many islands which make up the State of Hawaii. But that's another story.

Fort Sheridan plans Oktoberfest '89

Fort Sheridan's multi-faceted "Oktoberfest '89" on the Sept. 15 to 17 weekend once again offers north shore and Lake County residents "something for everyone" during the three-day celebration.

Visitors can choose from a full complement of carnival rides and games; interesting and unique food offerings - "down home" or "round the world"; music ranging from rock'n roll to European ethnic polkas; and headline stage performers scheduled into the big tent's non-stop stage schedule.

Adler

The music, songs and dances of the Missouri Hills come to Libertyville as Paul and Win Grace and Family bring their lively sounds to the American Legion Hall, on Milwaukee Ave., on Saturday, Sept. 9 at 8 p.m.

Admission and parking on Fort Sheridan grounds are free for the run of Oktoberfest '89. Hours are 5 to 11 p.m. Friday; 1 to 11 p.m. Saturday; and 1 to 10 p.m. Sunday. Tickets for carnival rides and varied food offerings are sold at booths throughout the grounds.

Distinctive German atmosphere is provided by authentic German tunes of "donauschwaben Blaskapelle" each day and the unmistakable aromas of bratwurst, schnitzel and other ethnic favorites prepared at the "Gasthaus." Good old burgers, hot dogs, corn, and other traditional dishes and beverages will be in full supply.

Supplementing the deejay offerings of Bob Mack and the German Band ensemble are local musical troupes. Dr. D with hits of the 50s and 60s at 8 p.m. Friday;

Classic rock'n roll provided by Joe Cantafio and the Giant-killers at 8 p.m. Saturday, and "good old country and early rock'n roll" by the Thunder-Riders at 8 p.m. Sunday.

The Thunder Riders were mainstays of the long-running Chicago stage hit, "Pump Boys and Dinettes." Cantafio's combo is newly formed, following his success with the Jade 50s band which performed at many Chicagoland events.

In addition to the carnival, food and stage entertainment, Oktoberfest visitors may browse at the Fort Sheridan Museum (10 to 4 p.m. daily) and other nearby buildings of the 204-acre National Historic Landmark Dist.

Drivers can reach Fort Sheridan by existing Rte. 41 (Skokie Hwy) at Westleigh Rd. in Lake Forest, drive east to Sheridan Rd. one mile, then south one mile to the post's main gate. The Metra commuter railroad North Line "Fort Sheridan" stop is about one block from the main gate.

Proceeds from Oktoberfest '89 activity go to Army Community Service family support programs at the post.

Critic's Choice

Baked Alaska tasty morsel

by TOM WITOM

Lakeland Newspapers

Second City Northwest's cleverly titled third revue, "Baked Alaska or This Oil Tastes Like Fish," sets the tone for a two-hour onslaught of topical humor.

Exxon Corp., urban crime, suburban ennui, even abortion and Mayor Daley and the Chicago City Council are duly raked over the coals by an engaging five-member cast.

Listening to Steven Carell's musical ode to Twinkies ("It's like eating liposuction") is enough to cure the most hardened junk-food junkie.

In "Blind Date," Carrell, a comic with a thousand moves, comes on as the world's most overt sexual pig in a crude but evocative first-date skit. In a more sensitive bit entitled "Go Away," Carrell and David Razowsky make for an interesting case study as the friendly new neighbor and the crochety set-in-his-ways oldtimer get acquainted.

"Kill," a lively if offbeat musical number, provides some possibilities for blowing off steam and making the 10 o'clock news.

A personal favorite, "Concession," features Razowsky, Fran Adams, John Rubano and Claudia Smith-Special romanticizing a date at the movies—complete with popcorn, real butter and potable water.

On the downside, "Baked Alaska" stumbles occasionally with overly predictable material (Is another schtick about leaving the cap off the toothpaste really necessary?) and overly long bits. "Trumpet," about a student going nowhere and a music teacher with nowhere to go, seems to run on forever.

Briskly paced, slickly packaged, "Baked Alaska," while not as savory a morsel as its predecessor, still rates high on the satisfaction meter.

Second City revue

New revue at Second City Northwest is 'Baked Alaska or This Oil Tastes Like Fish.' Cast includes, from left, Fran Adams, Steven Carell, Dave Razowsky, John Rubano and Claudia Smith-Special. Show is two-hour topical comedy onslaught covering the problems of the Exxon Corp., abortion, Mayor Daley, urban crime and suburban ennui, all considered by the five-member cast.

Unique - Quality Home By
HomeTown Design Group
And Greiner Construction Co.

Single family home with all the amenities! Spacious light-filled rooms, four bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, family room w/f, eat-in kitchen. Dining room, living room, and master bedroom with vaulted ceiling. Oak cabinets and trim throughout.
A must see deluxe home!

FLOOR PLAN

The contemporary Tilden, with porch and entry on the front, driveway and garage on the side to the left, is designed for placement on a corner lot. Through careful planning the designer has packed this compact home with most of the features asked for by today's practical, less formal young families.

Multi-paned thermal windows flood the group living areas with soft natural light. The dining and living rooms run together, both warmed by a large woodstove tucked in its own special brick-lined nook. Placing the woodstove on a raised brick hearth would create a row of seats, sure to be popular for soaking up heat when the weather turns cool.

Kitchen and family room share space, coming together at an eating bar roomy enough for four or five stools. The kitchen has plenty of counter and storage space, a walk-in pantry and a broom closet. The nearby utility room is equally handy to the garage and kitchen and is easily large enough to accommodate exercise equipment and/or a sewing machine and ironing board.

The master suite has a big walk-in closet. Separating the lavatory into its own little cubicle cuts down on steamy mirrors and increases privacy. The master suite also has access to a patio are pre-wired for later installation of a spa.

Two bedrooms share the other bathroom, this one with a tub and another separated lavatory/vanity. The stepped garage is large enough for two cars and a small workshop. For a study plan of the TILDEN (209-05), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Weekly Tip: Be cautious about to whom and what you commit yourself.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) An overactive imagination can lead to difficulties when you do not see yourself clearly. Defenses may go up when challenged. Don't be stubborn.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) You could find bargains on a shopping spree. Projects for the home and family are featured. Plan near-future travel with your mate.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) You can communicate more clearly and are sentimental towards those close to you. Your popularity is back on track. Remain open-hearted at home.

Cancer (June 22 to Jul. 21) If you are feeling sensitive to people, it is best to work alone and avoid associated stress and anxiety. An exercise regimen is drastically called for.

Leo (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Helping others to acquire self-confidence will increase your own. You can teach others now. Project your ideas. Knowledge is your golden key.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You may have to justify your involvement in an unusual alliance. Do not get so wrapped up in yourself that others are left on the sidelines.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Plan a great week, and refuse to let yourself get "down in the dumps!" Find some time for fun and relaxation. A dependable friend proves valuable.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Your powers of persuasion are great. The weekend will prove romantically fruitful. It is a favorable time to interact with all family members.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) A relationship is tested when someone is unable to compromise. It may be up to you to establish a better rapport with friends and relatives.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) If you are overprotective, others will be held hostage to your sporadic anxiety attacks. Trust in the future and concentrate on kindness.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You can translate your ideas into cash if you get busy before you lose interest. A short nap will refresh you before any evening festivities.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Relax and get your mind off your work. You need a pause to refresh your creative juices. Romance can play a role. A healthful diet can work wonders.

If You Were Born This Week
You have a vivid imagination and are attracted to spiritual, metaphysical, and religious endeavors. Others see you as generous, charming, and popular, but also know of your tendency to overplay your feelings and act impulsively.

LAKE VILLA

This Sunday night at the Chain of Lakes Community Bible Church, Part Three of a six-part film series, "Strengthening Your Grip," will be shown. The film, "Leisure: Attention all Workaholics (and Church-aholics)," takes a look at Genesis for insight into God's view of work and leisure. It begins at 6 p.m. at the church's temporary facility located in the Antioch VFW Hall on North Ave. (just east of Rt. 83).

For more information, call the church office at (312)356-2090.

LAKE VILLA

On Sunday, Sept. 3, the Chain of Lakes Community Bible Church will hold its Sunday morning worship service on the new church property. It will be a short, outdoor thanksgiving service. There will be no gathering at the Antioch VFW Hall (the church's temporary home) on that day. The service will begin at 9:30 a.m. Parking will be along the road or at Fox Trucking, across the street. On Sunday evening, the church will hold an outdoor baptism service at Camp Moyoca (located near the new property on Villa Vica Rd./Loon Lake). The service will begin at 6 p.m. Next week, services will be held at the Antioch VFW Hall, as usual, and the evening film services will continue. For more information, call the church office at (312)356-2090.

MUNDELEIN

The film "A Man Called Norman" will be shown at Calvary Baptist Church in Mundelein on Sunday, Sept. 3, at 6 p.m. This humorous and heartwarming film examines the relationship between two individuals, a town misfit and the man who chose to befriend him through Christ's love. Nursery service will be provided. The church is located at 1221 W. Maple (Rte. 176); telephone number is (312)566-6650.

GRAYSLAKE

The United Protestant Church of Grayslake will be holding its third annual auction on Saturday, Sept. 9, from 1 to 6 p.m. on the church grounds located at Park and Whitney Aves. in Grayslake. Items include various appliances, gym and exercise equipment, as well as services such as an eight-hour boat ride on Lake Michigan, a restaurant dinner for two and the offer of a permanent from local beauty salons. If you have items to donate to the auction, call (312)223-8131 (church office), or Jim Smith at (312)223-4780.

Schools announce free lunch requirements

Lakeland area schools have announced their policy for free and reduced price meals and free milk for those students unable to pay the full price for meals or milk under the National School Lunch, School and Special Milk Programs. Special milk is made available to students enrolled in a split-session kindergarten.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility:

If income information is provided and children are approved for meal or milk benefits, households must tell the school when their household income increases by $50 or more per month ($600 per year) or when their household size decreases. If a Food Stamp or Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) case number was listed, the household must tell the school when they no longer receive Food Stamps or AFDC for their child.

Households may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If a household is not eligible now but has a decrease in household income, an increase in household size, or a household member becomes unemployed, they should fill out an application at that time.

Country Garden Muffins

1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 cup uncooked quick rolled oats
2 Tbs. dark brown sugar
2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
1/4 tsp. salt
1 cup milk
1 egg, beaten
1/4 cup vegetable oil
4 ounces cubed, cooked lean ham (about 3/4 cup)
1/2 cup unpeeled, finely shredded fresh zucchini
1/2 cup finely chopped, cooked carrots

Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Combine flour, oats, brown sugar, baking powder, cinnamon, nutmeg and salt in large bowl; set aside. Combine milk, egg and oil in separate mixing bowl; stir in ham, zucchini and carrots. Pour liquid mixture into dry ingredients and stir until moist (do not overmix). Divide batter evenly into greased muffin pan.
Bake for 20 to 25 minutes or until golden brown. Refrigerate after cool. Makes 12 muffins.

Kicking off new season

Antioch's Dan Pappadakis kicks off during school's annual intra-squad game. Lake and McHenry County football teams completed three weeks of practice Thursday and many featured intra-squad contests last weekend. The 1989 season starts for real Sept. 1 when some nine games will be played involving area teams. Antioch will be one of three teams playing on Sept. 2 when the Sequoias travel to Niles North in a North Suburban Conference clash.—Photo by Steve Young

Hopes, questions dominate opening night

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

From Prairie View to Cary, from Grayslake to Bensonville, Lakeland area football teams will be traveling far and wide to kickoff the 1989 football season.

Questions coming into the new year include: will there be two playoff teams for the first time since 1986? (Warren and Grant made it that year.) Can Carmel's

Matt Simmons lead his team to a second straight playoff spot? Will Round Lake, which was denied a playoff spot by three measly playoff points a year ago, be able to make up that difference? Will new mentors Bill Johnson at Grayslake, Amos Jones at North Chicago and Rob Kruse at Grant be able to make waves in conference races?

A look at week one:

Gordon Tech at Carmel, 8 p.m.: Coach Mike Fitzgibbons is looking forward to the change in the season opener from the traditional Waukegan East game. The Corsairs feature Simmons, of course, with his more than 1,000 yards last season, but also have wide receivers Don Anderson and David Montgomery as a threat for quarterbacks Dan Bell and Todd Staley. Prediction: Carmel by three.

Batavia at Grayslake, 7:30 p.m.: the Rams have dropped Racine St. Catherine's for Batavia in the season opener. Tom Culhane could get the call at quarterback and he scored four touchdowns for the sophomores last year. Mike Duchane is the Rams' leading runner and John Bouma anchors the defense. Prediction: Grayslake makes Johnson's debut a success, wins by one.

Warren at Fenton, 7:30 p.m.: the Blue Devils travel to Bensonville for the long bus ride for the season opener. Mike Maar is expected to get the quarterback starting nod from Coach Reggie Hughes. Shawn Smith is a threat out of the backfield. Prediction: Blue Devils give Fenton a run for the money, but North Suburban Conference contenders win by six.

Grant at Jacobs, 7:30 p.m.: the lights will be flipped on in Algonquin for the first time in hopes of turning around a down football program. Bulldogs are led by Steve and Jamie Maiworm. Prediction: Grant by seven.

Mundelein at Stevenson, 7:30 p.m.: last season the Mustangs shocked the Patriots in week one but both teams struggled. Mustangs have Jim Casper back to anchor the defense while Stevenson is trying to regain that winning spirit. Prediction: Mustangs by three.

Johnsburg at McHenry, 7:30 p.m.: the Skyhawks started the McHenry County rivalry off on a sour note last year and never did recover. Johnsburg Coach Hap Farlow is hoping key players injured last year running back Eric Steadman and lineman Tom Popovich will be able to recover and give the Skyhawks better chances than last year's 0-9 record. McHenry though, is coming off a 7-2 season. Prediction: McHenry by 14.

Riverside-Brookfield at Lake Zurich, 5:30 p.m.: Coach Wayne Kuklinski is hoping to reach the .500 level in his first game and is confident the Bears will fare better than last year's 4-5 record. Prediction: Bears by two.

Wauconda at Cary-Grove, 8 p.m.: senior quarterback Dion Niemo leads the Bulldogs in the season opener against the Trojans, who have a new mentor. Coach Loffredo, who has seen the days of 14 players on the sidelines at Wauconda.

Antioch at Niles North, 2 p.m.: Coach Del Pechauer is looking for a solid start for his second season as head mentor after a frustrating 3-6 campaign last year. Quarterback Rick Beattie will guide the Antioch attack on offense. Vikings also look to improve from last year. Prediction: Antioch by three.

Elmwood Park at Round Lake, 7:30 p.m.: quarterbacks Mike Bragg and Keith Krause return to lead the otherwise young Panthers. Prediction: Panthers by two.

Games Saturday, Sept. 2 feature:
Zion-Benton at Libertyville, 2 p.m.: this one could be for all the

Prepared Mundelein spikers debut with win

When it comes to opening days, whether it be the first day on the job or in girls volleyball season, preparation is the key to success.

Just ask Mundelein girls volleyball Coach Dan Szymkowiak and Round Lake mentor Brian Brown.

Mundelein, in the season opener for both teams, started the new campaign off on a high note with a 15-12, 15-8 win.

"They did a good job of hitting the entire night. I think it was a total team effort on their part. They play over the summer together so that was a good advantage. They are used to each other, they know exactly what they were doing. They were well organized because they are well-coached. They were more prepared tonight than we were," Round Lake Coach Brown said.

The Mustangs are shooting for an upper division finish in the North Suburban Conference race which starts next week and used some dominating net play to record their first win. Sophomore middle hitter Shauna Kessel led the way with five kills.

Cindy Shark led the Mundelein serving attack with 13 of 13 and Ashley Struggles was also perfect, eight of eight.

"We hustled all over the court," Szymkowiak said of the opening night performance.

The Mustangs led at the outset of both contests, only to see the Panthers stage a rally.

In the first game, Mundelein pulled away from a 9-7 margin to lead 13-7 as Karen Finerty served for two points and Struggles for four, including an ace.

Cindy Donner then led the Panthers on a comeback, serving for five straight points as Round Lake closed the gap to 13-12. Szymkowiak was concerned that he was not seeing a repeat of 1988, when the Mustangs had early leads but lost to Round Lake.

Deal then finished off the match with two points.

Both teams had strong first games in serving, as Round Lake was 12-of-15 and Mundelein 15-of-18 in serves.

Simmons puts Corsairs ahead of statistics

No matter what the opponent - whether it be Gordon Tech in week one or Holy Cross in week nine, opponents of Carmel's football team will be hearing a lot about one player.

Matt Simmons.

"I'm a marked man in practice," Simmons said with a smile.

"My perspective of what is important has changed," he said.

Before assuming the head coaching position four years ago, Fitzgibbons was a long-time Carmel assistant. He had coached freshmen, sophomores and was defensive coordinator among many duties in his 14 years at the Mundelein school.

"I've been exposed to some real fine people," he said.

Round Lake Coach Mike Dunn, Grayslake mentor Bill Johnson and Tom Wittum all coached at Carmel at one time or another.

The Corsairs made the playoffs for the first time ever last year. When Carmel gained an early 3-0 lead, an already festive crowd was even more so. But Zion quickly recovered to trounce the Corsairs 31-10.

Simmons made his debut on the Carmel football scene in a big fashion - with an 88 yard touchdown return of a punt his sophomore year.

"He's an exciting player," Carmel Head Coach Mike Fitzgibbons said of Simmons.

Like Simmons, Carmel Coach Fitzgibbons is also learning.

Fitzgibbons is hoping last year's winning attitude, coupled with Simmons' backfield talents, will add up to a season to remember.

But perhaps might be the scariest thing for defenses is they may soon have another Simmons to worry about as his younger brother is in seventh grade.

Simmons gained more than 1,000 yards last year - 1,270 to be exact - and led the Carmel ground game. The Zion resident is not one to rest on his all-East Suburban Catholic Conference honors. He is learning more pointers from this year's new offensive coordinator Bill Mack.

Rams start tennis season

Grayslake girls tennis Coach Paul Keller may have looked at last year's roster at the close of the 1988-89 school year and wondered what was in store for his team this fall.

After all, the top two singles players, Dawn Wismer and Kristen Basca, had graduated.

"We should have pretty good balance," Keller said as the Rams prepared for the season opener against Warren Sept. 1.

Seniors Marianne Higgins and Kristy Robinson will comprise the first doubles team and both saw action last year.

Jenny Spanholtz and Lisa Welch are likely to make up the second doubles team.

EYE CARE

News, Views & Questions About Your Eyes

By

Robert L. Epstein, M.D., Director
Illinois Center for Corrective Eye Surgery

QUESTION: Would you please explain to me what a cataract actually is?

ANSWER: A cataract is a clouding of the normally clear lens of the eye. This clouding, a natural aging of the lens in most cases, prevents light from passing through the lens to the back of the eye, or retina. Much like the lens of your camera focuses light on the film, the lens of your eye focuses light on the retina. If the front of your camera's lens becomes dirty or fogged, then the picture taken will be hazy or blurred.

TCI fall cable schedule features NWSC clashes

TCI of Illinois Public Access Channel 36 has set its high school football broadcast schedule for the new season. Channel 36 will present games from the Northwest Suburban Conference during its Game of the Week, seen Saturdays at 6 p.m. with a replay on Wednesdays at 6 p.m.

Channel 36 will kick off its football coverage with a half-hour preview special, "Keeping the Dream Alive." This program will look ahead to the fall football season, and will feature interviews with the head coaches of the area teams. Schools included in the Channel 36 viewing area include McHenry, Woodstock, Round Lake, Grayslake, Johnsburg and Marian Central.

"Keeping the Dream Alive" will be seen on Monday, Aug. 28 at 7:30 p.m. with rebroadcasts on Tuesday, Aug. 29 and Thursday, Aug. 31 at the same time.

The regular season schedule will include same-day coverage of two games. The season premier on Sept. 2 will feature Woodstock at Waukegan

West, seen that day in the Woodstock area only at 8 p.m. The Sept. 30 game between Round Lake and Johnsburg will also be presented the same day.

Numbers looking up for CLC volleyball squad

A first glance at a College of Lake County women's volleyball practice and one can see some definite changes from last fall.

First, the coaching staff has doubled as Dianne VanderKooy has added assistant Chris Waddle to the staff.

Second, the sheer number of players has increased. A turnout of seven players for a practice would be considered an accomplishment last year - this year there are 13 players on the roster.

"It will be nice just to sit back and watch them play because the skill level is there," VanderKooy said.

Last year VanderKooy was given the position just one week before the first practice started. Hardly enough time to put up posters setting meetings, let alone recruiting.

After a 15-11 season which featured a challenge to McHenry in the sectional at CLC, VanderKooy has recruited such well-known volleyball standouts as Peggy Amedio of Round Lake, a hitter, Shannon Stanek of Libertyville a hitter-setter; Becky Ledezma, a Carmel graduate and a hitter-setter; Grayslake grad Jessica Elsner, a hitter-setter and Karen Lorenz, a Grant graduate and a hitter.

Returning sophomores are Tracy Niewizky, a Grant product and Teri Huntington of Warren.

Dr. Gary L. Rippberger ELDERLY FOOT CARE

Life expectancy is increasing steadily for Americans. Keeping the feet in good working order and painfree allows aging men and women to retain their mobility and lead active lives. Basic care of the feet, practiced regularly, can prevent many problems.

• Trim toenails straight across, even with the ends of the toes. Do not cut into the corners.
• Give your feet some sun and air, in moderation. Don't expose the feet to rain, cold, excessive sun or extreme heat from hot water or heating pads.
• Inspect the feet daily, or have someone do it for you. If there is redness, swelling, sores or skin cracks, consult the podiatrist.

• Schedule regular checkups with the podiatrist. Early detection often can prevent a minor problem from becoming worse.

Connection wins grant

The Hewitt Foundation has awarded Connection Telephone Crisis Intervention and Referral Service a $5,000 grant to support its Lake County Public Action to Deliver Shelter (PADS) program.

The PADS program offers shelter, food and hospitality to anyone in need during the cold weather season, Oct. 1 through April 30. Shelter sites are scattered throughout Lake County and staffed by trained volunteers.

Hewitt is PADS first foundation grantor and brings encouragement at a time when the program is in critical need of funding. Numbers of the homeless in Lake County are increasing, according to the Lake County Coalition for the Homeless.

The coalition collects data on shelter requests from human service agencies who provide services to the homeless.

Countdown underway for sewer plant expansion

by BILL SCHROEDER
Lakeland Newspapers

First steps have been taken on the countdown for start of the $23 million treatment plant expansion for the Northwest Lake County Regional Sanitation System.

The treatment works in Fox Lake is being expanded to a more than nine million gallons per day capacity to serve 14,000 users and future growth in an area including Fox Lake-Ingleside, Lakes Region Sanitary Dist., the great Round Lake area and Lake Villa.

Edward Benjamin, Fox Lake bond advisor, met with village officials Wednesday morning, Aug. 30, to finalize a proposed rate structure that will be submitted to the public service committee of the Lake County Board. Final approval by the County Board is anticipated Sept. 12.

Friday morning, Sept. 1, engineers for Donohue & Assoc., were to open bids predicted to attract the attention of contractors from throughout the nation.

Bid openers in Fox Lake will be linked by phone and FAX to Springfield where lending authorities will also scrutinize bids. An estimated $9 million in federal grants have been authorized for the project expected to be completed in 1992. More than $10 million will be loaned by the state to be paid for through the issuance of revenue bonds to be paid by user fees. Remainder of the cost will be paid through revenue bonds responsible for by Fox Lake taxpayers.

The timetable calls for recording the bid package Sept. 8 followed by conditional awarding of contracts at the Fox Lake council meeting Monday, Sept. 11.

Benjamin informed village officials that the bond sale will take place Sept. 25 in Chicago at the offices of Chapman & Cutler, municipal bonds authority. That evening it is planned the sale will be recorded at a Fox Lake village board meeting.

All bidding procedures and bond sale activities are geared to meet the Sept. 30 deadline imposed in the consent decree under which the outmoded and undersized plant has been operating for several years.

"You should have funds by Oct. 15," Benjamin declared.

Under financing arrangements, Fox Lake will shoulder responsibility for repayment of bonds to be defrayed by user fees collected from northwest customers.

A plan to issue alternate bonds which would involve neighboring municipalities was dropped for lack of time and support. Fox Lake officials were informed that additional state loan money is available in the event of a revenue shortfall.

Upon the recommendation of Benjamin, the bond ordinance will be written to provide 50 percent of bond fund surpluses for bond redemption and 50 percent for "any legal purpose" including rate reduction.

Fox Lake Trust Richard Bayne, chairman of the sewer committee, pushed for bond ordinance language to address what to do with surpluses required under state regulations.

Name Burke head of Choices resource team

Fox Lake Police Dept., along with concerned village citizens, has organized a prevention resource team called Choices.

The organization's primary function is to establish a drug-free community for all of us to live in. Although the focal point of

Choices is to provide education concerning drug abuse, other areas vitally important to the youth of the Fox Lake community will also be addressed. Programs dealing with such topics as drunk driving, child abuse, alcohol abuse, stranger danger, self esteem, etc., will be presented.

Sgt. Charles Burke of the Fox Lake Police Dept. will be presenting a series of videos and lectures designed for classroom use, both at the elementary and high school levels. Sgt. Burke, as the department's juvenile officer, has devoted a great deal of time in trying to prepare young people to lead responsible, productive lives, and it is hoped that the Choices program will be a definite help toward this goal.

Choices hopes to embody two basic principles of cooperation and partnership; cooperation among local businesses and local authorities and partnership between schools and the private sector.

Choices' goal is to unite resources with unlimited commitment in an attack on those problems which reflect the youth of our community, stated Police Chief Ron Nagel.

Panther netters begin title defense at home

Like most tennis coaches, Round Lake mentor Pat Costello will be using the first few matches of the new season to find out just who plays best at what position.

But the Panthers, defending Northwest Suburban Conference champs, will have at least one advantage over other teams: they won't have to travel or often to find the right combinations. Four of the first five matches this fall are at home.

Leading the returnees for the Panthers is No. 1 singles player Nicky Duax. The senior finished second at the top spot in the NWSC last year.

Jenny Porter is listed as the leading candidate for the third slot in singles.

In doubles, seniors Angie Nicholls and Lara Jeschawitz were second at No. 2 last year.

"We will use the first few matches to see who is competitive," Costello said.

The Round Lake coaching staff is hoping last year's never-say-die attitude carries over. The Panthers were 8-4 in duals and topped Lake Zurich by two points for the conference title.

Big Hollow PTA to meet Sept. 7

The Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) of Big Hollow School Dist. 38 will hold its first meeting at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 7. All members and interested parents and teachers are invited. Membership also is open to guardians, grandparents and friends in the Big Hollow community, all of whom are welcome. The meeting will be held at the Middle School Learning Center.

The PTO will welcome members old and new at the meeting, the first of the new school year. The organization's budget for the year will be discussed, and new PTO board members will present plans for the year. Ideas from anyone in attendance will be heard.

Three win scholarships

Carmel High School has announced the recipients of the 1988-89 Coca-Cola "We Mean Business" scholarships. The recipients of these scholarships are full-time students in good standing, majoring in business at accredited four-year colleges.

The recipients are Ron Freeman of Wildwood, Julie Fehsenfeld of Barrington and Virginia Pearsall of Round Lake. Freeman is attending Northwestern, Fehsenfeld is attending the College of Lake County, and Pearsall is attending Northern Illinois Univ.

Scholarships are awarded based on the amount of Coca-Cola purchased by the school during the year. The scholarship payments are for tuition and books. The awards are for $1,000 to each student over a four-year period.

Car-Min wins bid on Gurnee project

by PAT CHRISTENSEN
Lakeland Newspapers

The Gurnee Village board has announced that the water-line extension project will be awarded to Car-Min Construction.

Car-Min, which submitted a low bid of $368,978.60, estimates that work on the project will begin in 35 to 40 days and will cost residents $18 per frontage foot. James Hayner, village administrator, warns that the per foot cost is only guaranteed "while Car-Min is actually there," and that the fee could rise for those residents who delay their hook-up until after principal installation is completed. The cost will require a 70 per cent commitment from individual streets, and the money must be paid in advance.

There were 16 firms who submitted bids. Car-Min, a Waukegan based firm, has offered to include additional streets along the main trunk-line at the $18 per foot unit price for as long as construction continues and the street has a 70 per cent commitment, says Hayner, calling it "a nice side aspect on the bid."

The construction is slated to cover everything from Atlantic south to Grove west of Belle Plaine and Cheyanne east of Belle Plaine "right now," says Hayner, adding that, although the date is not firm, completion should be close to Nov. 1. Hayner does not feel that the up-front fee will pose a problem for residents.

Pat Zelasque, a resident who helped lobby for the project, agrees. "I'm real happy," she reports. "This is my Christmas present. We've been waiting for this for a long time."

Petitions were submitted in July from Grove, Magnolia and Belle Plaine residents. On a second petition, eight Cheyanne Ave. residents requested water service.

In other business, the board approved purchase of a Sentralox Knox Box Security System for the Fire Dept. at a cost of $3,650. The board also voted to add stop-intersections on newly installed streets.

Pat Wesolowski's request to attend the Illinois Municipal Treasurers Institute was also approved by the board, as was a request for the village to be co-principal on the Illinois Tollway Bond relative to Western Development's sewer and water installation work at the Gurnee Mills site.

Marriott's youngsters to see 'Fable Factory'

Marriott's Lincolnshire Theatre for Young Audiences begins its second season of children's musicals with "The Fabulous Fable Factory," by Joseph Robinette and Tom Tierney, beginning Oct. 4 and playing through Nov. 4.

The story revolves around Monroe, a lad who stumbles upon an old, seemingly abandoned factory. He accidentally hits a lever and starts the factory 'machinery' - an assembly line of seven actors - in motion. Charming Mr. Aesop, a sprightly 2500-year-old, introduces Monroe to the machinery.

The factory proceeds to create and enact some of Aesop's best fables ("The Tortoise & The Hare," "The City Mouse and The Country Mouse," etc.). Performed with bright and charming songs, this upbeat musical had a successful run on the Marriott stage eight years ago. It is being offered again as the first of a four-play series of musicals for children.

Dyanne Earley, artistic director of the Marriott's mainstage, will direct, assisted by musical director Bob Sutter. The Theatre for Young Audiences is produced by Michael Hendricks.

Performances are held most weekdays at 10 a.m. Saturdays at 11 a.m. Columbus Day, Oct. 9, there are two show times:

10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Tickets are $4.50 advance sale, $5.50 day of performance. Groups of 15 or more receive a discounted price of $4. Groups only call (312)634-0351. Box office call (312)634-0200.

Taxes due in Sept.

The second installment of 1988 real estate taxes is due on Sept. 5. The county treasurer's office will have extended office hours on the following days: Saturday, Sept. 2, from 9 a.m. to noon; and Monday, Sept. 5, from 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. Taxes may also be paid by mail or at any Lake County Bank.

Youth agency getting boost from Arby's

Lake County Arby's stores for the first time join the Arby's family nationwide in working together with Big Brothers/Big Sisters to make a difference in the lives of hundreds of children.

Arby's coupon books to benefit the local Big Brothers/Big Sisters agency are available at all Lake County Arby's stores through Sept. 18. Each book sells for $1 and contains coupons valued at $7.

Last year, the Big Brothers/Big Sisters coupon book program generated hundreds of thousands of dollars to benefit not only the local and national agencies of Big Brothers/Big Sisters, but also to benefit the Arby's/Hank Aaron Scholarship fund for Big Brothers/Big Sisters.

Pam Dawber and Lynn Swann, national spokespeople for Big Brothers/Big Sisters of America, are featured on Arby's Big Brother/Big Sister volunteer recruitment posters displayed in every Arby's store.

Six Flags Great America theme park for the fifth year are providing Big Brothers/Big Sisters with "free" coupons worth $8 in savings when redeemed at the admission gates on Aug. 28, Sept. 1, 2, 3 and 4 for the annual Labor Day Weekend Plus celebration. For every coupon redeemed Six Flags Great America will make a donation to Big Brothers/Big Sisters. McDonald's stores in Lake and McHenry Counties are the prime distributor of these coupons.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County coordinates the Labor Day weekend event at Great America with the participation of 16 Big Brothers/Big Sisters agencies in Illinois and Wisconsin.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County is dedicated to the promotion of personal growth and development of children at-risk who live primarily in single-parent homes through early intervention services of one-to-one mentorships that are professionally screened, trained and supervised. Volunteers are needed to meet the needs of the many children, 5-14, waiting for their special friend. Big Sister services to pregnant and single-parenting girls 18 and younger have also been made available through designated funding through the Lake County Board of Health and the Allstate Foundation.

A United Way Agency, Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County extends a heartfelt "thank you" for the tremendous community support through volunteer time and funding opportunities through promotions, events, donations and grants.

For more information, contact Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County at the new office location, 3838 Grandview Ave., Gurnee, 60031, or call (312)360-0770.

Warren spikers prepare for NSC loop opener

It did not have to be quite this exciting, but Warren Twp. High School's girls volleyball team may have given fans an indication of things to come as the Blue Devils opened the campaign with a two-game win over Grant.

Warren won the first game fairly handily, 15-6, for new Coach Felicia Moscatelli. But the second game was another factor as Grant challenged the visitors. Grant rallied to force the game beyond the 15-point total as Warren won 17-15.

"We had some aggressive play," Moscatelli said as her team celebrated.

Warren hosts Waukegan West Sept. 5 while Grant opens the NWSC season at Wauconda. The North Suburban Conference opener for Warren is Sept. 7 at league favorite Libertyville.

Grant Coach Sue Richardson, whose team finished a disappointing fifth place in the Northwest Suburban Conference, also pointed to some positives.

"We have some height this year and we should be able to surprise some people in the conference," Richardson said.

Warren led throughout the first game, junior Nikki Stolarik served for five and senior Heather Olejcek served for four as the Blue Devils built up a 13-5 lead.

Stolarik ended the game with a powerful spike.

In the second game, it was one of streaks for both teams.

Grant, led by Tammy Fischer's serving jumped off to a 6-0 lead. The six points included an ace.

But then Warren woke up. Olejcek started the Blue Devils on a 14-point run which seemingly put the match away. Junior Marnie Rettig served for five of those points and Williams eight.

Just as the Cubs proved at the same time in Wrigley Field in coming from behind against Houston, no lead is safe.

Senior Kim Garvey served for five straight points and a spike by Amy Nelson brought the home team to 14-11.

Dawn Bayne gave Grant a short-lived lead at 15-14. After a timeout, senior Melissa Webster finished off the match.

Lincolnshire reviews sewer system report

by SCOTT LEWIS
Lakeland Newspapers

A report on the Lincolnshire sewer system delivered to the village board this week recommended $1.5 million worth of improvements over the next five years.

The two principal recommendations in the report by Baxter & Woodman, Inc., Environmental Engineers were that the village build a diversion sewer to take all water from north of Rte. 22 to the Indian Creek Lift Station if development in that area of the village continues; and that the village upgrade the Village Hall Pump Station.

"We have to make sure that (the village hall) station is in as good a condition as possible," Village Mgr. David Limardi said. "This whole village is built around that. It's crucial. If something were to happen to it, we would be in big trouble."

The system has no major problems now, however. The report was for the purpose of "long-term planning, not because of problems," Donald Jakesch, director of public works, told the board. Lincolnshire has had problems in the past with water pouring from manholes, but that has not happened since extensive repairs were undertaken in 1987.

In other business, the Village of Lincolnshire Board of Trustees will vote Sept. 19 on whether to switch to a cooperative system for the dental insurance of its employees.

The dental plan would cover employees for up to $1,000 a year in medical costs.

The village currently uses Denticare of Illinois, a commercial insurance carrier, but is considering the switch "because, over time, we hope it will cost less," Christine Wilson, assistant village manager, said. The village's medical coverage is already on a cooperative system.

Other participants in the dental cooperative would probably include Kenilworth, Northfield, Skokie, Prospect Heights and the Northern Illinois Crime Laboratory, for a total of 650-700 employees, 45 of whom would be from Lincolnshire. The medical cooperative includes the same members plus Wilmette, which is not interested in the dental cooperative because it already has a commitment with a commercial insurer.

Participants in the cooperative would pay a monthly premium into a collective bank account, from which money would be drawn to cover claims.

Sundaes await young readers

Fifty young readers at Johnsburg Public Library will be served ice cream sundaes at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5, if they are among the first to arrive with a valid library card in their own name.

Library Director Zawacki said the ice cream party will be in recognition of National Library Card Sign-Up Month. At 4 p.m., there will be a movie showing for children.

Zawacki said children age five and over can get their own library card with a parent's signature.

Parents of pre-schoolers are being notified of the beginning of an eight-week story house for three- to five-year-olds the week of Sept. 11, with stories told at 9:30 a.m. Mondays and Thursdays and 1:30 p.m. Thursdays. Registration is necessary. All the library at (815)344-0077 for particulars.

H & R Block to Offer Tax School

Thousands of people are learning the skill of income tax preparation from H&R Block and are earning money as income tax preparers.

H&R Block, the world's largest income tax preparation service, is offering a basic income tax course starting September 7th with morning & evening classes available. Classes will be offered at many convenient area locations.

During the 13 week course, students will study all phases of income tax preparation and receive actual experience in preparing individual returns. Experienced Block instructors will teach current laws, theory and application, as practiced in Block offices nationwide. There is a classroom discussion on each tax subject and practice problems at every level. Courses are programmed to teach students increasingly complex tax problems as study progresses. Students will find the course both interesting and challenging.

Courses are ideally suited for people who want to increase their tax knowledge and learn how to save money on taxes or who are looking for a rewarding career. No prerequisites are required to enroll.

Qualified course graduates may be offered job interviews for positions with Block. Many accept employment with Block because of the flexible hours available. However, Block is under no obligation to offer employment, nor are graduates under any obligation to accept employment with H&R Block.

One low course fee includes all textbooks, supplies and tax forms necessary for the completion of the course. Certificates and 7.5 continuing education units will be awarded upon successful completion of the course. Mastercard, Visa and Discover cards are accepted, or a time payment plan is available.

Registration forms and a brochure for the income tax course may be obtained by contacting H&R Block. Round Lake-546-4862; Wauconda-526-8877
